Photography is a way of feeling, of touching, of loving.

~Aaron Siskind

Photography is a way of feeling, of touching, of loving. What you have caught on film is captured forever... it remembers little things, long after you have forgotten everything.

~Aaron Siskind

We look at the world and see what we have learned to believe is there. We have been conditioned to expect... but, as photographers, we must learn to relax our beliefs.

~Aaron Siskind

If you look very intensely and slowly things will happen that you never dreamed of before.

~Aaron Siskind

In any art, you don't know in advance what you want to say - it's revealed to you as you say it. That's the difference between art and illustration.

~Aaron Siskind

The only nature I'm interested in is my own nature.

~Aaron Siskind

It is no longer a matter of expressing reality, but of expressing what one feels about reality.

~Aaron Siskind

Almost inevitably there are tensions in the picture, tensions between the outside world and the inside world. For me, a successful picture resolves these tensions without eliminating them.
