I don't speak because I have the power to speak; I speak because I don't have the power to remain silent.

~Abraham Isaac Kook

The Second Temple was destroyed because of causeless hatred. Perhaps the Third will be rebuilt because of causeless love.

~Abraham Isaac Kook

When the spirit shines, even foggy skies make pleasant light.

~Abraham Isaac Kook

The higher the truth, the simpler it is.

~Abraham Isaac Kook

When one looks truly at the good side of everyone, others come to love him very naturally, and he does not need even a speck of flattery.

~Abraham Isaac Kook

We are great and our faults are great and therefore our problems great and great are our consolations.

~Abraham Isaac Kook

Contemplate the wonders of creation, the Divine dimension of their being, not as a dim configuration that is presented to you from a distance, but as the reality in which you live.

~Abraham Isaac Kook

We forgot we have Holy Body not less than our Holy Spirit.

~Abraham Isaac Kook

Our generation is wonderful generation, full of wonder. It's very hard to find an example of it in all our history. Composed of contradictions "€" light and darkness mixed.

~Abraham Isaac Kook

The thought of a happiness that comes from outside the person, brings him sadness. But the recognition in the value of one's will and the freedom granted by its uplifting, brings great joy.

~Abraham Isaac Kook

A tiny remnant of a big thing is better than a whole little thing.

~Abraham Isaac Kook
