A holiday is when you celebrate something that's all finished up, that happened a long time ago and now there's nothing left to celebrate but the dead.

~Abraham Polonsky

What do you mean "gangsters"? It's business.

~Abraham Polonsky

A holiday is when you celebrate something that's all finished up.

~Abraham Polonsky

If you don't get killed, it's a lucky day for anybody.

~Abraham Polonsky

Directors are like generals, political dictators, aggressive people...And everyone in the film is always grateful if you can tell them what to do.

~Abraham Polonsky

Money has no moral opinions.

~Abraham Polonsky

I don't take no dive for nobody. Whaddya think I am, a tanker!

~Abraham Polonsky

A man could spend the rest of his life trying to remember what he shouldn't have said.

~Abraham Polonsky

Today in Germany, everyone is being watched--even the watchers.

~Abraham Polonsky

I want to be a fighter. So fight for something! Not for money.

~Abraham Polonsky

Indians don't last in prison. They weren't born for it like the whites.

~Abraham Polonsky

Do you know what it's like to love and be alone?

~Abraham Polonsky

What are you gonna do? Kill me? Everybody dies.

~Abraham Polonsky

I'll kill you with my own hands rather than let you put the mark of Cain on my brother!

~Abraham Polonsky

You must never throw away things that are worth good money.

~Abraham Polonsky

This is Wall Street, and today is important. Because tomorrow, July 4th, I intended to make my first million dollars--an exciting day in a man's life. The enterprise was slightly illegal.

~Abraham Polonsky

Kids win this'n'that every day. Thousands of them. One out of a hundred fights professionally. One out of a thousand's worth watchin', one out of a million's worth coffee and doughnuts.
