

Adam Driver Quotes

*Acting, Actors, Thinking, Marine, People, Character, Military, Knowing, Play,
School, Feelings, Political, Girl, Directors, Want, Running, Tvs, Space, Writing, Evil*

Acting is really about having the courage to fail in front of people.

~Adam Driver

In the military, you learn the essence of people. You see so many examples of self-sacrifice and moral courage. In the rest of life you don't get that many opportunities to be sure of your friends.

~Adam Driver

If I'm not doing something or working on something, I literally just sit in the room and think, which I don't think is productive. I won't go outside for days.

~Adam Driver

For me, becoming a man had a lot to do with learning communication, and I learned about that by acting.

~Adam Driver

I feel like I'll never get over red carpets. They're so bizarre and awkward.

~Adam Driver

I have a control problem. I hate the feeling of not being in control.

~Adam Driver

It's hard to kill that father-son bond.

~Adam Driver

I used to eat a whole chicken every day, for lunch. I did that for four years. But it got tiring - go to the store, buy it, eat it. It's a mess.

~Adam Driver

I loved being in the Marine Corps, I loved my job in the Marine Corps, and I loved the people I served with. It's one of the best things I've had a chance to do.

~Adam Driver

Acting, to me, has been many things: It's a business, and it's a craft, and it's a political act - it's whatever adjective is most applicable.

~Adam Driver

I originally passed on 'Girls' because I thought TV was evil.

~Adam Driver

What is important is to maintain integrity of the story, of the character, of the movie, even if it's a big production.

~Adam Driver

Juilliard definitely emphasizes the theater. They don't train - at all really - for film acting. It's mostly process-oriented, pretty much for the stage.

~Adam Driver

Something I learned in the Marine Corps that I've applied to acting is, one, taking direction, and then working with a group of people to accomplish a mission and knowing your role within that team.

~Adam Driver

I always found something strangely paternal about the director-actor relationship. Actors want so much approval.

~Adam Driver

I mean, I did plays in high school, but I was convinced you couldn't make a living doing it.

~Adam Driver

Emphasis in the Marine Corps isn't on talking about your feelings.

~Adam Driver

I don't understand technology, and I'm very scared of it.

~Adam Driver

Yeah, September 11 happened and all my friends were like, 'Let's join the military!' and I was the only one who actually did.

~Adam Driver

I'm conflicted with theater in the city because you want to reach a diverse audience, and that audience doesn't typically go to the theater.

~Adam Driver

Through theater and acting school, I found a way to articulate myself.

~Adam Driver

I think it's possible to be free in a big production. It's the eye of the director and the actor and the story.

~Adam Driver

It was very clear to me I wanted to be an actor when I got out into civilian life.

~Adam Driver

Girls' feels very active and stirring a conversation and controversial, and you can't really ask for more as an actor.

~Adam Driver

I was born in California. When I was six, we moved to a small town in northern Indiana called Mishawaka.

~Adam Driver

I don't have cable. I just never watched a lot of TV.

~Adam Driver

Acting is a business and a political act and a craft, but I also feel like it's a service - specifically, for a military audience.

~Adam Driver

I'm not an acting monk or anything. I'm not, like, the most well-adjusted actor.

~Adam Driver

Related Links:

- Acting Quotes
- Actors Quotes
- Thinking Quotes
- Marine Quotes
- People Quotes
- Character Quotes
- Military Quotes
- Knowing Quotes
- Play Quotes
- School Quotes
- Feelings Quotes
- Political Quotes
- Girl Quotes
- Directors Quotes
- Want Quotes
- Running Quotes
- Tvs Quotes
- Space Quotes
- Writing Quotes
- Evil Quotes