At the very top state institutions, like UCLA, Berkeley and the University of Texas, however, the trend of downward minority enrollment remains persistent and discouraging.

~Adam Schiff

But even race-neutral policies and recruitment efforts designed to achieve greater diversity are, in the end, not race neutral.

~Adam Schiff

Notwithstanding these setbacks, the dream of a beautiful American orchestra goes on, and I share Dr. King's faith that each year we move inexorably closer to a magnificent opening night.

~Adam Schiff

Americans are blessed with great plenty; we are a generous people and we have a moral obligation to assist those who are suffering from poverty, disease, war and famine.

~Adam Schiff

So let us call genocide, genocide. Let us not minimize the deliberate murder of 1.5 million people. Let us have a moral victory that can shine as a light to all nations.

~Adam Schiff

But it is equally incontrovertible that if our intelligence gathering process is seriously flawed, we had better find out and find out fast if we are to avoid another Sept. 11.

~Adam Schiff

The legacy of the Armenian Genocide is woven into the fabric of America.

~Adam Schiff

Russia is leading a movement around the world to spread autocracy

and authoritarianism.

~Adam Schiff

If giving points to some students to achieve greater diversity is a quota system in violation of the Constitution, how can the awarding of points to the children of a less diverse alumni be upheld?

~Adam Schiff

America has a critical role to play as the most powerful member of the world community.

~Adam Schiff

An America that inspires hope in its ideals must complement an America that inspires awe in its strength.

~Adam Schiff

The war in Iraq has been extremely divisive here at home, and has also divided the world community.

~Adam Schiff

Gene Autry was a pioneering star in the early days of music, radio, film, television and rodeo performances. I am proud to posthumously honor such an inspiring role model.

~Adam Schiff

We must either reduce the number of our engagements or increase the number of our troops.

~Adam Schiff

Each year on the anniversary of Martin Luther King Jr.'s birth, America has the opportunity to reflect on our nation's progress towards the realization of his dream.

~Adam Schiff

It is now conventional wisdom that Americans do not care why we went to war in Iraq, that it is enough that the world is better off without Saddam Hussein.

~Adam Schiff

Terrific. Now to win a larceny trial all we have to do is prove how the universe ends.

~Adam Schiff

The new century has brought on its own terrible dangers, which although not reaching the apocalyptic potential of the Cold War, still have the capacity to shake our world.

~Adam Schiff

And in this community, as in all others, the Golden Rule still applies - we must be act toward other nations as we would have them act towards America.

~Adam Schiff

Winning the war on terrorism will also require a level of moral clarity that can provide a vision for struggling people and nations everywhere.

~Adam Schiff

We will not let terrorists change our way of life; we will not live in fear; and we will not undermine the civil liberties that characterize our Democracy.

~Adam Schiff

Unquestionably, the world is better off without Saddam.

~Adam Schiff

And when they have done their job, America must look after and honor its veterans.

~Adam Schiff

I would need to see changes in the Iraq governance. Otherwise I don't think strikes are going to have any impact and could be very well counterproductive.

~Adam Schiff

The U. S. trade deficit with China shows that while we value the potential of their market, they value the reality of our market. It is in this area that we should use our leverage.

~Adam Schiff

Unless action is taken soon - unless we can display the same vision of that earlier period - we will lose the treasure of California's open space and environmental beauty.

~Adam Schiff

Too much under the thumb of the Iranians.

~Adam Schiff

I think Hillary Clinton is right. I think it isn't enough to leave [Bashir] Assad in place, because as long as he is there, there is going to be a recruiting magnet for ISIS.

~Adam Schiff

It's a huge gap in security, it's a huge problem we've had with our immigration system for many years.

~Adam Schiff

I'm concerned the clock is ticking, and the danger to the American people is still very present.

~Adam Schiff

When Donald Trump focuses on a fight with the press or investigating leaks but doesn't seem committed to standing up to what Russia is doing at home and around the world, that is of profound concern.

~Adam Schiff

That bomb that took down that Russian airliner may have been the size of a soda can. And that bomb killed more people than all the Paris attackers combined. So this is still a grave threat.

~Adam Schiff

We should be worried about protecting the homeland. I think that policy is changing, should change and will change.

~Adam Schiff

The Gulf states are happy for us to fight and die. That's good for everybody, but the Americans fighting and dying.

~Adam Schiff

We still have a problem here in this country of access to airports and airplanes [for terrorists].

~Adam Schiff

We need Trump to lead the liberal democratic order around the world. No other nation can do that the way we can, and it's going to be very hard for Congress to do it over his opposition.
