Adversity makes me hungrier. I thrive on being able to make a way out of no way.

~Adrian Peterson

I dedicate myself and work hard in the weight room and treat every practice as if it were a game.

~Adrian Peterson

I remember my mistakes more than my success.

~Adrian Peterson

My dad means a lot to me. He's the one who put a football in my hands.

~Adrian Peterson

If you don't think that you're the best, how do you become the best?

~Adrian Peterson

I take football as an avenue to different opportunities. Football is not using me; I'm using football.

~Adrian Peterson

I'm pretty sure I could outrun the whole Dallas Cowboys team.

~Adrian Peterson

I have to continue to be a great leader and contribute in any way that I can, and get guys to follow suit. That's how you turn a team around.

~Adrian Peterson

I have always believed that the way my parents disciplined me has a great deal to do with the success I have enjoyed as a man.

~Adrian Peterson

I would sacrifice 1,000 yards rushing to win a Super Bowl. But I want to be the first back to have back-to-back 2,000-yard seasons.

~Adrian Peterson

I want people to come to the game to see what I will do next.

~Adrian Peterson

Seafood was always my favorite food. I mean, fried lobster? Come on. Once I found out shrimp, scallops and lobster were my allergic triggers, I had to change my diet.

~Adrian Peterson

The first two months were painful and they really tested my manhood because there were times I didn't want to get up because I was in pain. That willpower has to kick in.

~Adrian Peterson

I love my son. I love my kids, my family. Like I said after I took the misdemeanor plea, I take full responsibility for my actions.

~Adrian Peterson

I have the mentality that if you come in playing not to get hurt, that's when you're going to get hurt. So I play relentless.

~Adrian Peterson

I love my son more than any of you can imagine.

~Adrian Peterson

It's modern-day slavery.

~Adrian Peterson

The physical part has a lot to do with the mental part.

~Adrian Peterson

I run angry. Football allows me to take out some of my pain on the field.

~Adrian Peterson

It feels good to give back to the people who support you.

~Adrian Peterson

I want to help my team get to the playoffs, win, and run wild.

~Adrian Peterson

When I'm out, maybe I'm looking at the fried chicken, but I know I need to order the grilled. But I'm still from the country. I love my fried food and my neck bones and all that, too.

~Adrian Peterson

I try to be open with everybody, try to make everybody feel welcome and make them feel like, hey, I'm an easy person to talk to, get along with.

~Adrian Peterson

I definitely run up right, and I've got pretty good speed.

~Adrian Peterson

When I go out on the field, I just put it in my mind that I'm playing for my family.

~Adrian Peterson

I've been running like this since I was seven.

~Adrian Peterson

Thankfully, I'm lucky enough to be able to eat ice cream. I've got to have my cookies and cream! But I work out a lot, so I burn a lot of calories.

~Adrian Peterson

I'm really not vocal and expressive, but I'm starting to get more comfortable to open up.

~Adrian Peterson

I try to eat a lot of baked foods, fish, chicken, potatoes, stuff like that. Grab me a Muscle Milk. That helps.

~Adrian Peterson

I want to win four or five championship rings. That's how I dream. I dream big.

~Adrian Peterson

People say I'm injury-prone but that's definitely not true.

~Adrian Peterson

I want to be the best player to ever play this game.

~Adrian Peterson

I like to bless people and do things without the world knowing about it, because I'm not in it for the glory. I do it because it comes from my heart. As long as I keep doing that, I'm satisfied.

~Adrian Peterson

I'm looking forward to getting back on the field, it's what I love to do.

~Adrian Peterson

I go out and put in a load during the offseason so I know what I'm going to be able to do, as long as I stay healthy, when it comes time for the season.

~Adrian Peterson

It's not like I had to throw the football and deal with that as well. It was more disheartening, to be honest with you, just to kind of see how the National Football League really is.

~Adrian Peterson

I can catch the ball. You've got to throw it to me.
