I'm like a boomerang, I always come back.

~Agyness Deyn

I never knew modelling was what I wanted to do. I was just meandering through life having fun, having a laugh with my friends.

~Agyness Deyn

I'd like a relationship that was like two tree trunks side by side, strong but independent.

~Agyness Deyn

When I first started modelling, as I was walking down the catwalk I just thought, 'Please don't fall over, please don't fall over, please don't fall over!'

~Agyness Deyn

I think modelling was like the university of life, really. You get to travel but you get thrown into this adult world, which is kind of quite scary.

~Agyness Deyn

I want to play positive role models - women who mean something to other women.

~Agyness Deyn

Modelling is only about the look. In acting, it's the feel that matters.

~Agyness Deyn

I've always got on with lads, more than I have with girls.

~Agyness Deyn

I don't really see myself as a big supermodel.

~Agyness Deyn

Fashion isn't me, even though I work in it. It's just materialistic stuff.

~Agyness Deyn

If you have a connection to someone, it doesn't matter what their exterior is.

~Agyness Deyn

I've always been really private about my personal life. I don't talk about it.

~Agyness Deyn

I've never had formal drama-school training; I've just picked things up as I've gone along.

~Agyness Deyn

I definitely believe that love conquers all, yes.

~Agyness Deyn

I don't really go to fashion parties; they're not my scene.

~Agyness Deyn

I don't expect that because I was successful in one field that I will then get a ride of passage into another.

~Agyness Deyn

A lot of stuff written about me is rubbish. I don't know where they get it from, sometimes.

~Agyness Deyn

Well, I suppose I've never really had a lifestyle that needs upkeep. I don't get cabs; I'm on the Tube with my Oyster card.

~Agyness Deyn

It will appeal to girls who are confident and have a strong personal expression of style and identity in the way that they dress and what this says about themselves.

~Agyness Deyn

I dont have that many friends.

~Agyness Deyn

I dress like a tomboy.

~Agyness Deyn

I know I'm no Whitney Houston.

~Agyness Deyn

Laughing is, like, my favorite thing to do.

~Agyness Deyn

I'm not the new anything; I'm just Agyness.

~Agyness Deyn

I get on with all my exes, so there's nothing I need to forget about. I don't know - life is shorter than it seems.

~Agyness Deyn

To be supportive of myself, I have to go with what I want to do. I started acting and I was so mesmerized.

~Agyness Deyn

I don't think a name defines the core of who you are.

~Agyness Deyn

Not just in modeling, but in society, there's so much pressure about what a woman should be, and, of course, it's just so unobtainable. You can never become that thing, because it's such a projection.

~Agyness Deyn

I'm not oblivious to that connotation of changing careers, so I'm just going in and doing the job. I think that you can't fake doing the job. All I want to do is deliver. That's my focus.

~Agyness Deyn

When you're young, you say it how it is, and even your views are, like, 'This is totally the truth', 'cos you don't know any difference, so there's a real confidence in your way of thinking.

~Agyness Deyn

Being such a tomboy growing up, that was one thing that changed me as a person, as well. It broadened me, like me cracking myself open in a certain way.

~Agyness Deyn

My mum used to always dress me and my sister in matching Laura Ashley dresses. And I'd be like, 'Mum, I just wanna wear my Doc Martens!
