In fact, even the perception of a resurgence in crime can be enough to paralyze business momentum and destroy the sense of security that a vibrant and progressive city requires.

~Alan Autry

Leadership requires the courage to make decisions that will benefit the next generation.

~Alan Autry

All of the factors that make up a quality city - safe streets, high paying jobs, strong neighborhoods, etc. - emanate from a strong educational premise.

~Alan Autry

We can no longer let the threat of an early frost send a chill of fear throughout a large portion of our workforce. Diversification is the only answer.

~Alan Autry

We need innovation in education and dedication to the task before us.

~Alan Autry

I support public and private partnerships whenever appropriate in order to achieve our goal of a prosperous and vibrant downtown.

~Alan Autry

I will lobby tirelessly in cooperation with other mayors around the country to insure that federal funding for our recently added police officers continues.

~Alan Autry

While it is true that we must seek value added industries like food processing plants and call center operations, we must do what is necessary to expand and develop our economic profile.

~Alan Autry

High tech companies that focus on research, development and production will learn that they can be the perfect complement to our world-renowned agriculture heritage.

~Alan Autry

There has been much talk referencing what I consider conceptual reports like the Landscape of Choice and documents created as a result of the Great Valley Center.

~Alan Autry

It cannot take decades to resurrect, we must act immediately with purpose and enthusiasm to rebuild.

~Alan Autry

Leadership demands that we make tough choices.

~Alan Autry

Fresno is an All America city and deserves real, honest, strong leadership and I pledge to the people of Fresno to be that kind of leader.

~Alan Autry

You don't need a city charter to know that education is the foundation of any community.

~Alan Autry

Nothing is more devastating to a community than out-of-control crime.

~Alan Autry

I do not believe that defending traditional marriage between one man and one woman excludes anybody or usurps anybody's civil rights and denies anybody their civil rights.

~Alan Autry

I'll continue to work to ensure that safety and I am honored to have earned the endorsement of the men and women who provide public safety in our city.

~Alan Autry

I am convinced that your Mayor must take the leadership role in education too.

~Alan Autry

A natural disaster in one American city is a natural disaster in every American city, including Fresno and, for that matter, every city and small town in the San Joaquin Valley.

~Alan Autry

We must do more to protect our neighborhoods and give integrity to our community plans.
