A good gardener looks at every plant every day.

~Alan Chadwick

We are the living links in a life force that moves and plays around and through us, binding the deepest soils with the farthest stars.

~Alan Chadwick

It is not the gardener that makes the garden. It is the garden that makes the gardener.

~Alan Chadwick

There is one rule in the garden that is above all others. You must give to nature more than you take. Obey it, and the earth will provide you in glorious abundance.

~Alan Chadwick

The Gardener does not create the Garden. The Garden creates the Gardener.

~Alan Chadwick

What is commonly called a pest is nature's way of bringing back into balance an imbalance that man has created.

~Alan Chadwick

Filthy, mucky tools: filthy, mucky work. Clean, beautiful tools: clean, beautiful work.

~Alan Chadwick

We need to create the beauty and the quality first. The quantity will follow.

~Alan Chadwick

The one infallible sign that a spiritual teacher is a fraud is that he charges money for his instruction.

~Alan Chadwick

If you obey the technique to perfection, that technique will become invisible.

~Alan Chadwick

Everywhere the devil spits, poison ivy grows.

~Alan Chadwick

Patience is not a virtue!

~Alan Chadwick

Science is an excellent piece of furniture to have in the second story, providing that you have common sense on the ground floor.

~Alan Chadwick

Scottish Theatre's greatest success story of recent times.
