The flag that was the symbol of slavery on the high seas for a long time was not the Confederate battle flag, it was sadly the Stars and Stripes.

~Alan Keyes

Christ is the very epitome of innocence, and without the blood of Christ, shed on Calvary, God's plan of salvation would not have been fulfilled.

~Alan Keyes

We must take away the government's credit card. With limits on both tax revenue and borrowing, the Federal government would finally be forced to get serious about spending cuts

~Alan Keyes

I frankly don't care if you agree with my stand on abortion. I take that stand because no other stand is consistent with decent principles, and no other standard is consistent with the will of God.

~Alan Keyes

Do we really think that a government-dominated education is going to produce citizens capable of dominating their government, as the education of a truly vigilant self-governing people requires?

~Alan Keyes

The fundamental premise of liberalism is the moral incapacity of the American people.

~Alan Keyes

A callous disregard for the claims of innocent human life is the heart and soul of the evil of terrorism.

~Alan Keyes

Anything the government gives you is just another link in the chains that destroy your liberty.

~Alan Keyes

You can't build marriage on a foundation of selfish hedonism, because that would be to promise people only roses, and marriage is also thorns.

~Alan Keyes

How does it secure the blessings of liberty to our posterity, to those generations yet unborn, to kill them, aborting them in the womb?

~Alan Keyes

Every leader, and every regime, and every movement, and every organization that steps across the line to terrorism must be banished from the discourse of civilized human life.

~Alan Keyes

Freedom is first of all a responsibility before the God from whom we come.

~Alan Keyes

The question isn't whether you have a good master or a bad master, it's to be your own master. That is the dignity of humanity.

~Alan Keyes

Selfish hedonism is not a pejorative. It is a description - an exactly accurate description of what is involved in homosexual relations.

~Alan Keyes

The act of voting is one opportunity for us to remember that our whole way of life is predicated on the capacity of ordinary people to judge carefully and well.

~Alan Keyes

Christ would not vote for Barack Obama because Barack Obama has voted to behave in a way that it is inconceivable for Christ to have behaved.

~Alan Keyes

It's in the private places of the heart that freedom is made or unmade by the discipline we create there.

~Alan Keyes

There's not a single thing on offer in this all-too-temporary world for which you should ever sell your soul.

~Alan Keyes

The answer to crime is not gun control, it is law enforcement and self-control.

~Alan Keyes

Our first responsibility is not to ourselves. Our first responsibility is to our country and to our God.

~Alan Keyes

I will stand against those who see terrorism when Americans die, but who see suicide bombers who kill Israelis and believe that that is just part of the negotiating process.

~Alan Keyes

If the Declaration of Independence states our creed, there can be no right to abortion, since it means denying the most fundamental right of all to the unborn child, the right to life.

~Alan Keyes

The heart of government, coated with whatever velvet gloves you want to put on it, is a mailed fist of force and coercion.

~Alan Keyes

We must reject dictatorship in whatever form it takes - and especially when it rears its head in our own midst on the bench.

~Alan Keyes

Politics must be founded on the solid faith of God almighty

~Alan Keyes

Our leaders will serve the common good with better laws and better actions only when we serve it first, by casting better votes.

~Alan Keyes

If we accept the logic of the Declaration, reverence for God is not just a matter of religious faith, it is the foundation of justice and citizenship in our republic.

~Alan Keyes

Our success or failure is not in the hands of our leaders. It is in our.

~Alan Keyes

Where do find the most persecuted Christians in the world?... in the classrooms of our government schools, where the assault is not upon the body, but the soul.

~Alan Keyes

Rights come from God and only from God.

~Alan Keyes

When we surrender moral government to the courts, we have surrendered the very essence of freedom; we have surrendered its only real meaning, and we will not be free again until we get it back.

~Alan Keyes

Christians belong in American politics because there is not and cannot be a fundamental separation between our moral vocation and our citizenship.

~Alan Keyes

It is not for us to calculate our victory or fear our defeat, but to do our duty and leave the rest in God's hands.

~Alan Keyes

Harden our hearts. To the innocents in the womb and we have hardened our hearts. To the need for compassion and mercy and. Fellow feeling. And charity. And decency in this world.

~Alan Keyes

I personally do not owe the debt that was owed by the campaign.

~Alan Keyes

It's like the neighborhood I would have grown up in, I think, if I had have grown up here.

~Alan Keyes

The travesty of slavery wasn't physical abuse. It was the moral abuse of looking at a human being as if they are an animal.

~Alan Keyes

We have created an educational system, funded throughout the country by taxpayer dollars, that systematically turns our children away from the truth that makes them free.

~Alan Keyes

Nothing is so opportune for tyrants as a people tired of its liberty.

~Alan Keyes

I accept the Republican nomination for the U.S. Senate, to represent the State of Illinois.

~Alan Keyes

That money was for working eight to twelve hour days ... it was not a welfare check.

~Alan Keyes

It is the absence of bars that makes a beast free - but only the truth can make a man free.

~Alan Keyes

In this respect, granting homosexuals the right to marry is like granting plantation owners the right to own slaves.

~Alan Keyes

Family life is the normal context in which we can learn that a life filled with thinking about others instead of ourselves is the sure road to the most fulfilling joys and satisfactions.
