Emirates Stadium should be named after Arsene Wenger

~Alan Pardew

You feel vulnerable when you hear things that are not being said

~Alan Pardew

Shut your noise, you old c!

~Alan Pardew

The one thing I hate about other managers is waffle that is nowhere near the truth. I would never conduct myself like that.

~Alan Pardew

I tried to push him away with my head. I apologise to everyone. I should not have got involved in it.

~Alan Pardew

I have to be involved in negotiations because players have to buy into me and what I want from them if they join my club, so all managers need to be fully involved in transfers, that's for sure.

~Alan Pardew

It's almost like he has Dr. Who's Tardis because he always turns up on time. (on Teddy Sheringham)

~Alan Pardew

I have had situations in the past when you are close to signing a player and the money involved switches from euros to pounds to dollars. It is a difficult process, but one we have to work with.

~Alan Pardew

I did as well as I could at Newcastle.

~Alan Pardew

You always have to have faith in your own abilities and that has to be evident to your players.

~Alan Pardew

It's important that top clubs don't lose sight of the fact that it's the English Premier League and English players should be involved.

~Alan Pardew

I look at Rafa Benitez in his time at Liverpool, he had difficult periods and the same goes for Brendan Rodgers in the same job now. These difficult periods come and you have to accept that.

~Alan Pardew

It (Arsenal) is an English club but not an English success. It's probably a greater reflection of youngsters from France and elsewhere in Europe.
