We played in Texas about a year ago, at Emo's, the famous country and western club in Austin. And I figured, well, if I'm finally gonna die onstage, that's where it's going to be!

~Alan Vega

I always said I was never gonna be an entertainer, Suicide was never supposed to be entertainment.

~Alan Vega

That's what my music... I'm working on a solo record right now, it's gonna be more hip-hop than anything, like electronic hip-hop, futuristic hip-hop. I'm probably gonna be rapping on it.

~Alan Vega

I like performers who I know are for real. You can tell, man, there's an intensity about their stuff. You can tell right away they're real people, ya know?

~Alan Vega

But of course it's always gonna be Suicide, our fingerprints, ya know? You can't ever get rid of that.

~Alan Vega

Experience really does make you better, man.

~Alan Vega

We're just getting better at our trade, man. We know what we're doing, and the reason why is that we've spent 30 years doing it. There's nothing that can replace that.

~Alan Vega

I did a couple songs with this hip-hop guy named Tim Dark. He was working in the same studio I've been working in, he heard my music and he said, aw man, I've got to do something with you.

~Alan Vega

That's why so much of the music today sounds so much alike, because there's no in-between. So it's kind of nice to still turn some buttons every now and then.

~Alan Vega

People said that way back in the early days I was probably one of the first rappers; the reason is that I couldn't sing, so I had to talk! Lou Reed was probably the one who started it all.

~Alan Vega

You're gonna laugh when I tell you this, man, but I'm starting to enjoy Eminem.

~Alan Vega

John Coltrane - I've been listening to the 'Trane again. It blows you away, because I know more now and I hear more now and I had a life that I've lived!

~Alan Vega

It's easy for me to say that now, now I'm a father, I've got a four-and-a-half year old boy, I'm a different person. Well, I'm still the same person, but I'm different.

~Alan Vega

It was when I saw Iggy Pop, that's what did it for me. That changed my life pretty much.

~Alan Vega

Lately I've been listening to some classical music again, some jazz.

~Alan Vega

I probably won't be able to hear it until five years from now anyway.

That's when I always hear my own music. It takes five years to sit down with it after not hearing it for a couple of years.
