My death will be caused by morphine, which I have deliberately taken with suicidal intent.

~Alex Campbell

We have witnessed the terrible increases in the incidence of alcoholism, the advent of drug dependency, the protests, marches, strikes and human alienation.

~Alex Campbell

The reason why I take my life is because I want to go to my wife and boy. My usefulness in this world is at an end. I can not be satisfied in any business and can not be without their companionship.

~Alex Campbell

I do not regard it as wrong to take my life, because I simply change my place of residence and go where my wife and baby are.

~Alex Campbell

I go gladly to my wife and boy, and I leave this world at peace with every one in it and at peace with God.

~Alex Campbell

I, Alexander B. Campbell, make this statement of the cause of my death to relieve the coroner of the necessity of an inquest, and also let my friends know the motive that led me to take my own life.

~Alex Campbell

I have no ill will in my heart against anybody in this world.

~Alex Campbell

I am glad to go with my wife and baby boy.

~Alex Campbell

I believe in God and immortality.

~Alex Campbell

I am through with this body, and what becomes of it will make no difference with me in the future.

~Alex Campbell

We, in our Province, are beginning to realize and appreciate that our slowness in keeping up with our North American neighbours may well have been a blessing in disguise.

~Alex Campbell

What we are only now beginning to fully realize is that in seeking material pleasure too constantly, the capacity for enjoyment or fulfillment decreases and eventually becomes exhausted.

~Alex Campbell

To conquer nature is, in effect, to remove all natural barriers and human norms and to substitute artificial, fabricated equivalents for natural processes.
