There is always that one band that comes along when you are 14 or 15 years old that manages to hit you in just the right way and changes your whole perception of things.

~Alex Turner

A lot of people tell me I'm a bit dreamy, but I like the idea of that. Of being somewhere else.

~Alex Turner

You spend your time thinking about that and you get lost in reflection.

~Alex Turner

Love's not only blind but deaf.

~Alex Turner

There's that 15 quid we put on One Direction to win down the drain.

~Alex Turner

What came first the chicken or the dickhead?

~Alex Turner

There have always been jokes all over our songs; I originally started writing lyrics to make my friends crack a smile, which is difficult.

~Alex Turner

Maybe I'm too busy being yours to fall for somebody new.

~Alex Turner

I just wanted to do something that would freak people out. That's the best thing to do.

~Alex Turner

You can't worry what people think.

~Alex Turner

Every time you write a song, you're looking for some sort of perfection, and you never quite reach it. You're always looking for that extra missing piece.

~Alex Turner

Sometimes writing songs is like waiting for deliveries.

~Alex Turner

Songwriters always reminded me of that kid at school who would go around with his guitar, like, "Yeah, songwritin' man," looking wistful. That wasn't me - those kinds of people put me off.

~Alex Turner

Rock'n'roll will never go away completely because it's so fundamentally attractive.

~Alex Turner

I think each thing in a way acts as a stepping - stone for whatever the next thing is.

~Alex Turner

I've come to recognize songwriting as something that I do, and I want to be good at that. At that craft, if you like. I want to practice it.

~Alex Turner

I can't draw. I'm good on the yo-yo, but I don't draw.

~Alex Turner

I took the batteries out my mysticism / "And put them in my thinking cap
