Prayer is the only way to amend your life: and without prayer, it will never be mended.

~Alexander Whyte

No man's prayer is acceptable with God whose life is not well pleasing before God.

~Alexander Whyte

Grace, then, is grace,--that is to say, it is sovereign, it is free, it is sure, it is unconditional, and it is everlasting.

~Alexander Whyte

There are two ways to read Scripture - the way a lawyer reads a will and the way an heir reads a will.

~Alexander Whyte

The greatest and best talent that God gives to any man or woman in this world is the talent of prayer.

~Alexander Whyte

Only once did God choose a completely sinless preacher.

~Alexander Whyte

If you find your life of prayer to be always so short, and so easy, and so spiritual, as to be without cost and strain and sweat to you, you may depend upon it, you have not yet begun to pray.

~Alexander Whyte

Every kind of prayer, not intercessory prayer only, which is the highest kind of prayer, but all prayer, from the lowest kind to the highest, is impossible in a life of known and allowed sin.

~Alexander Whyte

Prayer is a rising up and a drawing near to God in mind and in heart, and in spirit.

~Alexander Whyte

Admit sin, and you banish prayer. But, on the other hand, entertain, and encourage, and practice prayer, and sin will sooner or later flee before it.

~Alexander Whyte

It is the holiness of our Lord's heart that fills the New Testament full and makes it the unparalleled and unapproachable Book that it is.

~Alexander Whyte

No prayer!--No faith!--No Christ in the heart. Little prayer!--Little faith!--Little Christ in the heart.

~Alexander Whyte

But grace has only one direction that it can take. Grace always flows down.

~Alexander Whyte

If you would move me with your preaching, or with your praying, or with your singing, first be moved yourself.

~Alexander Whyte

Prayer worth calling prayer, prayer that God will call true prayer and will treat as true prayer, takes for more time by the clock than one man in a thousand thinks.

~Alexander Whyte

You're not likely to err by practicing too much of the cross.

~Alexander Whyte

And then, what is grace? Grace is love. But grace is not love simply, and purely, and alone. Grace and love are, in their innermost essence, one and the same thing.
