When you're reading something, your imagination goes and you see it in your mind. Sometimes my instincts with that are right, and sometimes they're wrong.

~Alexandra Breckenridge

I'm completely in control of creating my photographs, and I'm not always in complete control of creating a character. It's more of a way to express myself than acting is, by far.

~Alexandra Breckenridge

I've always been drawn to playing characters that are a completely the opposite of myself.

~Alexandra Breckenridge

I love horror movies, so it's a real treat to be able to work on a television show of that genre, and have it actually be really, really good.

~Alexandra Breckenridge

I'm always looking for a chance to play somebody who's completely opposite of me, just because I find it more interesting.

~Alexandra Breckenridge

I don't watch things like Jeepers Creepers or Final Destination 5 ½. I really like more of the psychological thrillers.

~Alexandra Breckenridge

I'm more of a "let the man come to me" girl.

~Alexandra Breckenridge

I get hit on so much it's not normal. I didn't realize so many men liked redheads.

~Alexandra Breckenridge

For the most part, when you're on set, you know everything's fake. You're very aware of the fact that you're shooting a television show.

~Alexandra Breckenridge

Any time a new horror film comes out that looks appealing, I'm always excited to go see it.

~Alexandra Breckenridge

When you're working, you have so many people working around you and being involved. It can get a bit overwhelming. I've just gotten used to it.

~Alexandra Breckenridge

I love True Blood and Buffy, and, obviously, this is one of my favorite jobs that I've ever had - but not just because it's horror, but because the cast is so good and the writing is so great.

~Alexandra Breckenridge

I've been a huge horror fan since I was about eight years old, which is a little bit young to be watching scary movies.

~Alexandra Breckenridge

Sometimes you'll be on sets, and people will be fighting and there will be some nasty person that thinks they're the next Brad Pitt.
