I can ride horses. And I read a lot. But that's kind of it. I think it's enough.

~Alice Englert

Stories are the only thing that I can be bothered with. Its the only way that I can do anything, even if Im quite useless. Its the only area in being human where I could be a little useful.

~Alice Englert

I was raised with adults. I skipped knowing how to interact as a normal teenage person.

~Alice Englert

I've always loved fantasy. I think it's a great way to look at issues that we have in our own lives with a little bit of the pressure off, you know.

~Alice Englert

It's not what you see on-screen that makes a performance. It's the things you should never know about - it's the secrets.

~Alice Englert

Personally, I like films that make me a little bit uncomfortable because I think you're uncomfortable when something is real.

~Alice Englert

I've spent half my life on planes. I have a lot of love for New Zealand, though. That is where the really arty, whimsical side of the family resided - in Hobbitland.

~Alice Englert

What's interesting is, for myself, when I become really attracted to somebody, I find them in my dreams... conversations, nothing more.

~Alice Englert

I've spent half my life on planes.

~Alice Englert

Being in love is not cool!

~Alice Englert

I grew up on film sets but more around the process of making films. I saw a lot of the editing process and the writing process, which takes years. That really affected me growing up, that side of it.

~Alice Englert

I think the theme that I was attracted to in 'Beautiful Creatures' was you claim yourself. In my opinion, I think that's a really valid idea and I'm glad that that's our foundation.

~Alice Englert

You don't want to remake something that's just been made, as an actor.

~Alice Englert

Apparently I had lunch with Johnny Depp when I was three months old.

~Alice Englert

I bought a camera with my first ever paycheck.

~Alice Englert

I can't do an accent unless I'm on the set. I forget how to do it until I'm on the set.

~Alice Englert

I dropped out of school and I never took acting classes.

~Alice Englert

I eat meat. I don't go to the gym.

~Alice Englert

I think you manifest what you believe, and when you believe that you have no choice you lose choice.
