Manchester has a certain reputation of being cool.

~Alice Lowe

We always wanted to make a comedy that was a little bit more than that, which had tragic elements to it... that people engaged with - an intelligent comedy essentially.

~Alice Lowe

I think in most couples or partnerships, there's a constant struggle for power and dominance.

~Alice Lowe

Growing up, I didn't feel very cool having come from the Midlands.

~Alice Lowe

So many films end up being filmed in London or in the same places over and over again.

~Alice Lowe

When I was a kid the highlight of my week would be doing a fossil hunt at the local quarry... that kind of thing.

~Alice Lowe

Both of us have forged our careers in London, but a lot of my comedy influences come from my family and my childhood.

~Alice Lowe

I think both of us [with Steve Oram], once we decided to do comedy, knew that we would have to come to London to do that.

~Alice Lowe

We developed 'Sightseers' as a TV idea but didn't get anywhere with it because all the channels said it was too dark originally as an idea for television.

~Alice Lowe

'Sightseers' started off as a character comedy double act.

~Alice Lowe

I think it's very easy to get discouraged early on.

~Alice Lowe

If you can make someone believe that you believe in the idea then I think that's worth a lot.

~Alice Lowe

I think what's difficult is proving to people that a script actually does work and sometimes the laughter might not be on the page, it might be between the lines.

~Alice Lowe

Ironically, there isn't much comedy film in Britain, which is quite surprising seeing that we're quite good at it.

~Alice Lowe

It's nice to think people might be talking about it after they've seen it. With some comedies it's a bit 'wham bam thank you ma'am', and then you just go for a pizza.
