I think that people respond to honesty in music, so I only choose songs that are the truth for me.

~Alison Krauss

That's what I love. Not being interrupted, sitting in a car by myself and listening to music in the rain. There are so many great songs yet to sing

~Alison Krauss

The grand old lady of bluegrass? Well, wouldn't that be a wonderful title to have? I hope I do enough to earn it some day

~Alison Krauss

If you don't know what makes green, you're going to try every color combination.

~Alison Krauss

Lyrics are kind of the whole thing; it's the message. Something might have a beautiful melody but if it's not the truth coming out of your mouth, it's not appealing

~Alison Krauss

I don't look for bliss, just contentment.

~Alison Krauss

Growing up I used to love bands like Free and ELO and the Rolling Stones. When Robert Plant got in touch it made perfect sense to me.

~Alison Krauss

I'm much better at fixing or changing a melody to suit me than I would a lyric. But for me, everything is lyric. It has to be true for me to say it.

~Alison Krauss

Whenever I've chosen a song because it's clever, it's always turned out to be a mistake.

~Alison Krauss

My parents made us do everything, try everything.

~Alison Krauss

Some things feel really good to sing: there's a physical aspect, but there's more to it - a deeper place you go to.

~Alison Krauss

I love being in the world of the unknown.

~Alison Krauss

There are so many great songs yet to sing.

~Alison Krauss

There's a restless feeling knocking on my door today.

~Alison Krauss

A whole album to one writer - now that would be really interesting.

~Alison Krauss

I don't get recognised in London or at home either - very seldom anyway. Either that or I look so crazy no one wants to come up to me.

~Alison Krauss

Being in the studio is a really romantic time.

~Alison Krauss

I started with the classical violin when I was 6, and I guess it went well.

~Alison Krauss

I still think of myself as from Illinois.

~Alison Krauss

It's impossible to make a record when you're ill because it affects how you listen to things. You can't make decisions. It all sounds terrible.

~Alison Krauss

I find the songs I want to record by listening to as much music as I can. 'When I hear things I really like, I ask the writers to send me a tape of everything they've ever written.

~Alison Krauss

I think you translate emotion better when you take your hands off.

~Alison Krauss

People are always very nice.

~Alison Krauss

I grew up in a school that had a big music program, and it was incredible. It's what I looked forward to during the day. I had chorus, strings, band.

~Alison Krauss

I never had any big dreams about doing something on a huge scale.

~Alison Krauss

I don't know if bliss is possible and I've always thought that my best times will be later in life.
