

Allan McNish

Quotes

Car, Thinking, Racing, Boys, Race, Numbers, Sports, Winning, Trying, Giving Up, Average, Kids, Law, Fighting, Ability, Sleep, Weekend, Hurt, Believe, Opportunity

My motto is to do everything absolutely flat out and to the best of your ability.

~Allan McNish

As a driver you enjoy winning races and, if you win in the easiest way possible, fine, but in reality we all remember the fights to the end, the nip-and-tuck stuff.

~Allan McNish

It is hard to be number one, and it is even harder to stay there because everyone is trying to knock you off the top.

~Allan McNish

What I like is when you can hear the heart and soul of music and can feel the energy coming out of it, because that's what it's like when you drive.

~Allan McNish

The main factors in terms of how tiring a season can be are governed by the number of races and the length of time between the first and the last.

~Allan McNish

I have been listening to sport and watching sport on the BBC since I was a tiny boy.

~Allan McNish

I don't do much driving - about 5,000-6,000 miles a year. And most of that is to the airport and to the racing circuits.

~Allan McNish

It was not until I started racing for car manufacturers that I found a car I could really get attached to. I am the son of a car dealer, so up until then, cars just came and went.

~Allan McNish

Related Links:

- Car Quotes
- Thinking Quotes
- Racing Quotes
- Boys Quotes
- Race Quotes
- Numbers Quotes
- Sports Quotes
- Winning Quotes
- Trying Quotes
- Giving Up Quotes
- Average Quotes
- Kids Quotes
- Law Quotes
- Fighting Quotes
- Ability Quotes
- Sleep Quotes
- Weekend Quotes
- Hurt Quotes
- Believe Quotes
- Opportunity Quotes