I want to be buried with a mobile phone, just in case I'm not dead.

~Amanda Holden

I should have been out there having a wild time like all the other girls my age, but I wasn't. I was going home every night to what was, initially, a very happy marriage.

~Amanda Holden

Follow your dreams, because your dreams won't follow you.

~Amanda Holden

My dream is to have a gay son.

~Amanda Holden

I was a prefect at school, I never had a tattoo, got a detention or pierced my ears more than once.

~Amanda Holden

I never believed I wouldn't make it - and perhaps that's why I've always found work. I've always stuck at everything I've ever done. I absolutely won't give up.

~Amanda Holden

I am an optimist. I think, as bad as life sometimes gets, there is so much joy and so much good stuff, that there is a balance.

~Amanda Holden

My husband says my toes are like Wall's cocktail sausages. He feels peckish whenever he sees them.

~Amanda Holden

I don't care who or what judges me, nothing's going to stop me from living my life how I choose.

~Amanda Holden

My family are my priority but I've always had a strong work ethic and I like to be busy.

~Amanda Holden

If I had a dream show, I probably shouldn't even mention it in this climate, but it would be like a kind of Fix It show.

~Amanda Holden

In the past, I've thrown myself into work so much there's been very little room for anything else.

~Amanda Holden

I'm in the lucky position financially where I don't have to do things I don't want to do.

~Amanda Holden

It is going to take a very brave man to love me.

~Amanda Holden

I have such a lovely life and I just never imagined that I would miscarry a baby.
