What would America be like if we loved black people as much as we loved black culture?

~Amandla Stenberg

It's easier to say, 'Don't care about what anyone thinks,' than it is to actually not care about what anyone thinks. But, honestly, anything you're passionate about, that's what you'll be the best at.

~Amandla Stenberg

Don't denounce our pain as savage. What's savage is the cruel inhumanity and brutality of the police. Condemn that.

~Amandla Stenberg

If you work hard, it will pay off.

~Amandla Stenberg

My mom reminds me that all things are possible.

~Amandla Stenberg

I wonder how many college tuitions could be paid off with the amount of money spent by Minions on advertisement.

~Amandla Stenberg

There's so much power in allegory, to form ideas and learn lessons that you can actually take and apply to real life. I think that's why I originally really loved fantasy and reading.

~Amandla Stenberg

It's hard to find black roles that are just whimsical and fun and colorful. And I think, in many ways, that can be just as powerful in making commentary about race through movies.

~Amandla Stenberg

I think there's this great disconnect between youth culture and politics, which is a product of how our capitalist system works.

~Amandla Stenberg

The internet has allowed me to just be authentically myself, as opposed to having to perpetuate a certain image, and so I'm lucky that I don't have to fit into a certain box.

~Amandla Stenberg

I love all kinds of art. I mean, I love sketching and acting and music.
