The truth is, that what women have to do is not work for less money. They have to walk away.

~Amy Pascal

I accept full responsibility for what I wrote and apologize to everyone who was offended.

~Amy Pascal

I would have worked no matter what. I was born and raised that way. It occurred to me to be married second.

~Amy Pascal

I run a business. People want to work for less money, I pay them less money. ... Women shouldn't be so grateful. Know what you're worth. Walk away.

~Amy Pascal

You should always say exactly what you think directly to people all the time.

~Amy Pascal

Brands should think of themselves not as storytellers but storybuilders. We plant seeds of content and let our community build on it.

~Amy Pascal

I love women. I've always cared about making movies about women my entire career.

~Amy Pascal

It's astonishing how many people who direct action don't know how to tell a story.

~Amy Pascal

I always wanted to make movies no matter what. It's true. No matter how I was getting to do it, that's what I wanted to do.

~Amy Pascal

It has been said that I make chick flicks. This is not a compliment.

~Amy Pascal

I love to read things that I'm sure won't make a movie.

~Amy Pascal

You can't run a company simply by the numbers. So if you're going to bet on someone, you bet on someone you want to be in business with for a long time.

~Amy Pascal

I didn't make 'The Sixth Sense' because I thought the ending wouldn't work!
