My philosophy has always been, do what you love and the money will follow.

~Amy Weber

I have always brought home stray animals - everything from squirrels to wild rabbits to foxes and turtles.

~Amy Weber

My biggest accomplishment was playing "Lark" on the daytime drama Port Charles because it was the most regular acting job I have had, and I had to step in and fill someone else's shoes.

~Amy Weber

Dustin Hoffman was the greatest. He had so much information to give and he mesmerized me. He really feels for actors who are just starting out and remembers his early days like they were yesterday.

~Amy Weber

At the end of the day, it's nice to walk away from a set knowing that you're doing a movie that is not just for money and is not just pure entertainment.

~Amy Weber

I lost twins at 14 weeks, and I had to have an D and C on my birthday.

~Amy Weber

I started when I was seven years old so I was on 50, 60 cc Suzuki and then I went up to a Yamaha 125 and then my sister was 16 and she was racing a Harley Davidson 750.

~Amy Weber

I don't have any regrets. When I quit college and moved to Los Angeles to become an actress, it was so that I would not look back and have any regrets.

~Amy Weber

I prefer working on films. I like the variety. There is nothing better than playing a bad girl for two months, then playing someone sweet for the next two. Films give you this opportunity.

~Amy Weber

I see myself starring in and producing major feature films.

~Amy Weber

I put a lot of pressure on myself, but I also have what I call an X-factor.

~Amy Weber

I am a very private person. I still get shy at times.

~Amy Weber

I want people to say, 'She is really sweet and kind.' Anyone can work hard enough and be 'pretty.' Not many people are nice nowadays.

~Amy Weber

God does love you and that, hopefully, you get to the point that you realize that having a relationship with God should be first and foremost in your life.

~Amy Weber

I think everything in life is a balance.

~Amy Weber

I just think I have always had a good attitude about everything and never got ahead of myself. No one wants to work with a jerk.
