If you feel like it's difficult to change, you will probably have a harder time succeeding.

~Andrea Jung

You know, you go home and you try on a new mascara, and I guess a male CEO can't do that.

~Andrea Jung

My parents kept the best aspects of the Asian culture, and they Americanized the family. My mother was a great example for me. She was a working mother with a good career.

~Andrea Jung

I can only have dinner with my girlfriends once a month instead of once a week.

~Andrea Jung

Talent is the No. 1 priority for a CEO. You think it's about vision and strategy, but you have to get the right people first.

~Andrea Jung

I think it's critical that you feel you're working for a person who is committed to advancing your career.

Avon is a unique place to work; we've got family-friendly policies. We have more senior women in high-level management than any other company; 46 percent of our officers are women.

~Andrea Jung

Some people just wait for someone to take them under their wings but they should just find someones wings to grab onto.

~Andrea Jung

Women like myself, CEOs, can pave the way for more women to get to the top.

~Andrea Jung

My parents ingrained in me early on that the perfect score is always something to strive for. I want to win and I want to succeed no matter what.

~Andrea Jung

It's an unbelievable responsibility to influence decisions, shareholder value and most important to me, people's careers and livelihoods.

~Andrea Jung

Follow your compass, not your clock.

~Andrea Jung

The product is second to managing the people.

~Andrea Jung

There's obviously a correlation between an economically empowered woman and the investments she makes. That leads to her social and moral conscience for bettering her community.

~Andrea Jung

I feel like I'm part of history being made. I leave Apple board meetings thinking, 'I've got to do a better job.'

~Andrea Jung

Women like to use products that other women say work. The Internet will be a big opportunity, but you can't smell a fragrance there yet.
