I would absolutely commit to holding a vote on the hunting ban - I think it is not proven to be in the interests of animal welfare whatsoever.

~Andrea Leadsom

I always make decisions with the facts so I would look to make an early decision with the benefit of the facts.

~Andrea Leadsom

If you are asking me, am I going to be sort of saying 'oh well 'God's told me to do this and do that' well of course that's not the case.

~Andrea Leadsom

I say to all who are legally here, that you will be welcome to stay.

~Andrea Leadsom

I think part of the whole agenda of being open for business is about making sure that people can get here and also get there.

~Andrea Leadsom

Actually I do believe we need a proper licensed regime that works better and is much more focused on animal welfare.

~Andrea Leadsom

I do want to be very clear: I see our nuclear deterrent as absolutely core insurance for our national security.

~Andrea Leadsom

I will not use people's lives as bargaining chips.

~Andrea Leadsom

For the second time in history the Conservatives will have a female prime minister, proving that we are not just the greatest but the most progressive party in Britain.

~Andrea Leadsom

I want to lead a nation where anyone who aims high can achieve their dreams.

~Andrea Leadsom

I think it is very difficult for somebody who campaigned to stay in, who thinks there will be disaster if we leave and so on to suddenly turn it around and start believing that we can make a go of it.

~Andrea Leadsom

I absolutely am a Christian and I am very proud of it.

~Andrea Leadsom

For me what we need is a great deal of fiscal stimulus to show the UK is open for business. We need to upskill our workforce. I'm very much in tune with the work our chancellor is doing.

~Andrea Leadsom

Specific policy decisions would be absolutely necessary to promote the UK. It's not necessarily borrowing more or changing our current account status.

~Andrea Leadsom

I genuinely believe the next leader has to be somebody who sees the opportunity of leaving the EU and is completely determined to deliver on what the people have told us to do.

~Andrea Leadsom

I think we would look at other possibilities that would deliver further passenger capacity, that would deliver further infrastructure to the north of England but would be better value for taxpayers.

~Andrea Leadsom

I came into politics because of a real childhood concern about the Cold War. So to me the importance of the nuclear deterrent is actually really ingrained in me.

~Andrea Leadsom

The great news is we have an all-female shortlist with no positive discrimination or anything, isn't that fantastic?

~Andrea Leadsom

Prosperity should be our goal, not austerity.
