We are squandering our wealth. In many respects, to the extent that we persist in our imperial delusions, we're also going to squander our freedom...

~Andrew Bacevich

Sometimes, when you can't fix the problem on your own, you need to make some compromises and find the partners who can get the job done for you.

~Andrew Bacevich

Ideology makes people stupid.

~Andrew Bacevich

It's not so much the amount of tax we pay - it's the sense that our pocket's being picked without our knowing what's going on.

~Andrew Bacevich

As a kid I was enamored with fiction, most of it utterly forgettable and long forgotten.

~Andrew Bacevich

If any overarching conclusion emerges from the Afghan and Iraq Wars (and from their Israeli equivalents), it's this: victory is a chimera.

~Andrew Bacevich

Rejection would be a disaster for the U.S., but ratification alone will not end our problems in Iraq. Even if the constitution is ratified, the insurgents are not going to lay down their arms.
