I'm ugly, I'm overweight, but I'm happy

~Andrew Flintoff

That means I can drive a flock of sheep through the town centre, drink for free in no less than 64 pubs and get a lift home with the police when I become inebriated. What more could you want?

~Andrew Flintoff

Captaincy is something you get better at through experience. You've got to trust your instincts.

~Andrew Flintoff

A lot of the lads have a bat for the nets, a bat for facing the bowling machine and a separate bat for the match. I'll just crack on with a bat until it breaks - then crack on with another one.

~Andrew Flintoff

I'm not too good with packing. I always have every intention of doing it the week before and then leave it until the last moment - but at least I do it myself, I don't leave it to the missus.

~Andrew Flintoff

It's far more daunting than bowling to Ricky Ponting or facing Shane Warne

~Andrew Flintoff

There are times when I have felt the pressure, but at the moment I play cricket the only way I can.

~Andrew Flintoff

When I have a day off, I will have a day off.

~Andrew Flintoff

We have to take care of our own game. There's only one place we've got to stick up for ourselves and that's the pitch.

~Andrew Flintoff

I'm not really someone who looks forward to the gym. But I realise it's something that I have to do to perform well on the pitch.

~Andrew Flintoff

I'm not sure if I'm looking forward to facing Brett Lee again. He bowls at 95mph so enjoyment is not the word I would use.

~Andrew Flintoff

It's usually the funny comments which are the better ones - and they are good for the game.

~Andrew Flintoff

If you're batting and you go off on one it can't really help you.

~Andrew Flintoff

There are of course mornings when you wouldn't mind a lie in.

~Andrew Flintoff

I can lose my temper from time to time, but I try not to lose it on the pitch because it can't help.

~Andrew Flintoff

I'm comfortable in the way I play and comfortable in who I am.

~Andrew Flintoff

Whatever was written in the media was beyond me. The only thing I could control was getting fit.

~Andrew Flintoff

I'm not really superstitious - I don't have any lucky charms or a mascot.

~Andrew Flintoff

My family is not a distraction. They're the most important thing in my life.

~Andrew Flintoff

While I'm at second slip I'm not just thinking of what I'm going to have for tea. I'm considering the match as well, wondering how I can help, if there is anything I can offer.

~Andrew Flintoff

I'll take my iPod - though I'm not very good with gadgets to be honest - and that has everything I like.

~Andrew Flintoff

Personally I prefer to work things out by feel, by instinct.

~Andrew Flintoff

If you go out to bat against Australia, they come at you hard.

~Andrew Flintoff

But there is no danger of my not concentrating on cricket. I'm comfortable on the pitch, and that will never change. I have to remember what I do for a living

~Andrew Flintoff

Sure, you can do without the hard personal comments, but it doesn't really happen apart from a few isolated incidents.

~Andrew Flintoff

I'm completely different from Pietersen. He would turn up to the opening of an envelope

~Andrew Flintoff

In the past five weeks I've trained hard, trying to get my ankle back to where I want it to be

~Andrew Flintoff

I'm not keen on making predictions.

~Andrew Flintoff

When it comes to sledging, I think people often get the wrong view.

~Andrew Flintoff

I'm not someone who needs to bat and bat to be in form.

~Andrew Flintoff

It's a big part of my life, listening to music and watching TV.

~Andrew Flintoff

If I'm playing well I'll get through a bat in three weeks. I batter them.

~Andrew Flintoff

Cricket is great, but I'm not as comfortable with everything else that goes with it.

~Andrew Flintoff

I have a varied taste, I'll listen to anything. Well, not anything, no techno.

~Andrew Flintoff

I always listen to music before I go out to bat. Any track, really, just whatever I feel like at the time.

~Andrew Flintoff

I've read a lot of Irvine Welsh - Trainspotting, Glue - he's written some beauties.
