Last year we had so many people coming in and out they didn't bother to sew their names on the backs of the uniforms. They just put them there with Velcro.

~Andy Van Slyke

I have an Alka-Seltzer bat. You know-plop, plop, fizz, fizz, when the pitcher sees me walking up there he says, 'Oh, what a relief it is'.

~Andy Van Slyke

Every season has its peaks and valleys. What you have to try to do is eliminate the Grand Canyon.

~Andy Van Slyke

My biggest problem in the big leagues is that I can't figure out how to spend forty-three dollars in meal money.

~Andy Van Slyke

The game is full of peaks and valleys, the key is to avoid the Grand Canyon.

~Andy Van Slyke

Good mothers are underrated, just like good defense.

~Andy Van Slyke

They wanted me to play third like Brooks so I did play like Brooks - Mel Brooks.

~Andy Van Slyke

He (Ozzie Smith) plays like he's on a mini-trampoline or wearing helium kangaroo shorts.

~Andy Van Slyke

If someone from Germany or somewhere, who had no idea what baseball was, saw Kruk play, he'd wonder what the beer truck driver was doing playing first base.

~Andy Van Slyke

If everyone were like him (Mitch Williams) I wouldn't play. I'd find a safer way to make a living.

~Andy Van Slyke

Mario Lemieux is Mr. Pittsburgh.

~Andy Van Slyke

It seems like Satan has thrown the DH into our game.

~Andy Van Slyke

Who says there's an unemployment problem in this country? Just take the five percent unemployed and give them a baseball stat to follow.

~Andy Van Slyke

The biggest adjustment from the minors was learning to spend $45 in meal money.

~Andy Van Slyke

I always respected Barry Bonds, and I wanted to let him know that I did in a certain way.
