God, Humility, Perfection, Heart, Angel, Men, Soul, Mother, Lovers, Running, Noble, Beloved, Father, Fire Of Love, Delight, Whole, Forever, Giving, Progress, Humanity

Without humility of heart all the other virtues by which one runs toward God seem - and are - absolutely worthless.

~Angela of Foligno

Humility exists only in those who are poor enough to see that they possess nothing of their own.

~Angela of Foligno

Our perfection certainly consists in knowing God and ourselves.

~Angela of Foligno

This whole world is full of God!

~Angela of Foligno

So great was my joy in God that I took no heed of looking at the angels and the saints, because all their goodness and all their beauty was from Him and in Him.

~Angela of Foligno

By virtue of love is the lover transformed in the beloved and the beloved transformed in the lover.

~Angela of Foligno

Holy Scripture is so exalted that there is no one in the world ... wise enough to understand it so fully that his intellect is not overcome by it. Nevertheless, man can stammer something about it.

~Angela of Foligno

There is neither father, nor mother, nor son, nor any other person whatsoever who can embrace the object beloved with so great a love as that wherewith God embraceth the soul.

~Angela of Foligno

Our condition is most noble, being so beloved of the Most High God that He was willing to die for our sake- which He would not have done if man had not been a most noble creature and of great worth.

~Angela of Foligno
