I have learned that there is more power in a good strong hug than in a thousand meaningful words.

~Ann Hood

love is reliable. infatuation is temporary.

~Ann Hood

Time doesn't heal, I had learned, it just keeps moving. And it takes us with it.

~Ann Hood

A sibling is the lens through which you see your childhood.

~Ann Hood

Don't waste your one beautiful life.

~Ann Hood

Grief doesn't have a plot. It isn't smooth. There is no beginning and middle and end.

~Ann Hood

No mother should lose her child.

~Ann Hood

The only language she could speak was grief. How could he not know that? Instead, she said, "I love you." She did. She loved him. But even that didn't feel like anything anymore.

~Ann Hood

No one can write like Cheryl Strayed.

~Ann Hood

In my adult life, I had spent a lot of time angry at God, mostly over the sudden deaths in my family - my brother at 30, my daughter at 5.

~Ann Hood

I am the woman with the cool vintage glasses... I am the proud wife beside her husband... I am the writer who has written a new novel.

~Ann Hood

Even now, there are still days so beautiful, I almost believe in God.

~Ann Hood

My cousins and I used to play Beatle wives. We all wanted to be married to Paul, but John was O.K. too. None of us wanted Ringo. Or even worse, George.
