Don't concentrate on what you lack, concentrate on what you have. Then give all of it to Jesus for His use.

~Anne Graham Lotz

It's sobering to contemplate how much time, effort, sacrifice, compromise, and attention we give to acquiring and increasing our supply of something that is totally insignificant in eternity.

~Anne Graham Lotz

Faith is like a tender plant, rooted in Christ alone, watered by the Spirit and the Word, strengthened by the winds of adversity and the sunshine of blessing.

~Anne Graham Lotz

Our ultimate aim in life is not to be healthy, wealthy, prosperous, or problem free. Our ultimate aim in life is to bring glory to God.

~Anne Graham Lotz

There is nothing at all that God won't forgive

~Anne Graham Lotz

If God can bring blessing from the broken body of Jesus and glory from something that's obscene as the cross, He can bring blessing from my problems and my pain and my unanswered prayer.

~Anne Graham Lotz

The first secret to loving others is to immerse yourself in a love relationship with God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit - and abide there.

~Anne Graham Lotz

When your spirit is heavy, when your heart is broken, when your burdens seem unbearable - trust Him. Look to Him.

~Anne Graham Lotz

God can change our circumstances, but sometimes He waits for us to show real desire for change as well as our faith in Him.

~Anne Graham Lotz

You can look forward with hope, because one day there will be no more separation, no more scars, and no more suffering in My Fathers House. It's the home of your dreams!

~Anne Graham Lotz

Our love for Christ is more important to Him than all of our service to Him. Strict obedience and services are not enough. Love for Jesus must come first.

~Anne Graham Lotz

When life is good and we have no problems, we can almost let ourselves believe we have no need for God. But in my experience, sometimes the richest blessings come through pain and hard things.

~Anne Graham Lotz

The kind of trust God wants us to have cannot be learned in comfort and ease.

~Anne Graham Lotz

Religion can be one of the greatest impediments to finding God.

~Anne Graham Lotz

If Jesus forgave those who nailed Him to the cross, and if God forgives you and me, how can you withhold your forgiveness from someone else?

~Anne Graham Lotz

When the storms of life come, if they come to me personally, to my family or to the world, I want to be strong enough to stand and be a strength to somebody else, be shelter for somebody else.

~Anne Graham Lotz

If you feel far from God right now, guess who moved? You're only a decision away from reconnecting.

~Anne Graham Lotz

I get up earlier than my husband and I intentionally spend time in prayer and Bible reading just to focus myself for the day, because the days get crazy.

~Anne Graham Lotz

I need the spiritual revival that comes from spending quiet time alone with Jesus in prayer and in thoughtful meditation on His Word.

~Anne Graham Lotz

Knowing where you are going takes the uncertainty out of getting there

~Anne Graham Lotz

If our lives are easy, and if all we ever attempt for God is what we know we can handle, how will we ever experience His omnipotence in our lives?

~Anne Graham Lotz

God cannot be less than Himself. And God is good. And active. And faithful. And He cares.

~Anne Graham Lotz

Sometimes when you're suffering really intensely, you can't pray for yourself.

~Anne Graham Lotz

Just like you need to strengthen your core physically with exercise, you also need to strength your core spiritually.

~Anne Graham Lotz

Suffering may be someones fault or it may not be anyones fault. But if given to God, our suffering becomes an opportunity to experience the power of God at work in our lives and to give glory to Him.

~Anne Graham Lotz

Often, in the midst of great problems, we stop short of the real blessing God has for us, which is a fresh vision of who He is.

~Anne Graham Lotz

I do not believe evil men are led by God. I believe there are plots of evil. We live in a sinful world, and there are a lot of things that happen as a result of sin.

~Anne Graham Lotz

I'll tell you what, I love my daddy. And he's so special. He's meant so much to me, so it's not a thorn in my side to be known as Billy Graham's daughter. It's a privilege.

~Anne Graham Lotz

When Jesus says you must leave your family to follow Him, he doesn't necessarily mean physically. He means leave your dependence on them, make an emotional break with them.

~Anne Graham Lotz

Prayer offered without faith by a person that doesn't truly believe God exists will not be effective. Sin in our lives that we refuse to confess will also render our prayers ineffective.

~Anne Graham Lotz

God knows that sometimes we lack words to express our feelings, heart-cry, thoughts. And so within the Bible he includes people's prayers as models to help our own.

~Anne Graham Lotz

My life's goal is not to write books; my life's goal is to know God better today. The neat thing about a goal like that is you can achieve it. Faith is constant; it's a relationship.

~Anne Graham Lotz

There were so many outstanding women in scripture that were leaders. And, you know, the organized church sometimes puts boundaries on us that the Bible doesn't.

~Anne Graham Lotz

For myself I never plan the way I deliver a message. I do prepare the content, and then I open my mouth and give it. And so the expression, the gestures, the emphasis on words, all of that just comes.

~Anne Graham Lotz

The blessing of my mother is that she is so interested, she is so bright, she never complains - the joy of the Lord just bubbles out of her. Anybody who's in her presence is blessed to be there.

~Anne Graham Lotz

I think of religion as man's attempt to reach God, and you can't do that.

~Anne Graham Lotz

Prayer is hard work. We may neglect it because we're too tired, too busy, or too distracted to put into prayer the effort required.

~Anne Graham Lotz

Death is a door. When we close our eyes in this life, we will open our eyes to Jesus.
