Define success on your own terms, achieve it by your own rules, and build a life you're proud to live.

~Anne Sweeney

Surround yourself with the best people and then get out of their way. Give them a chance to exceed your expectations and they usually will.

~Anne Sweeney

It's amazing what you can do when you stop worrying about failing.

~Anne Sweeney

Take the job or the project that scares you a little. It's the one with the most to teach you.

~Anne Sweeney

A good leader should focus on making sure everyone is being given the tools to do their job, not just expecting - poof! - that they're going to produce great work.

~Anne Sweeney

Before you can make a difference, you have to believe you can.

~Anne Sweeney

I'm naturally curious, and I've always been driven by my curiosity. Curiosity gets people excited. Curiosity leads to new ideas, new jobs, new industries.

~Anne Sweeney

It's not the balanced life we remember, it's the beautiful life.

~Anne Sweeney

Piracy is a huge, huge issue for all of these major content companies, and everybody has a different way of addressing it.

~Anne Sweeney

The greatest gifts you can give your team: clarity, communication, and pulling people together around a shared mission.

~Anne Sweeney

Television has always been something you watch; now, increasingly, it is also something you do.

~Anne Sweeney

The value of the television network is partly tradition, serving as a navigation device and as a brand. Research shows that people do know and understand ABC as a brand, like Disney.

~Anne Sweeney

I really moved through my career based on curiosity about something. I never looked at a title and said, 'I want that.'

~Anne Sweeney

If you want to see the future, watch 8 year olds

~Anne Sweeney

I look at power as the ability to get people motivated and to get them to do things that maybe they don't think are important but, in the end, are in pursuit of something greater than themselves.

~Anne Sweeney

I see a lot of women of every age trying to be something else. I see them trying to imitate behaviors that they think belong to successful people.

~Anne Sweeney

My theme song is always: "Pay attention to your viewer. Follow them."

~Anne Sweeney

I never looked at a title and said, I want that.

~Anne Sweeney

The more personalized television gets, the less passive the experience will become.
