There's really no point in having children if you're not going to be home enough to father them.

~Anthony Edwards

My family had all kinds of complications in relationships. I would like to meet the person who did not. Since when is being absolutely perfect what being a human is? What do we gain from that?

~Anthony Edwards

Be what you are. Don't change yourself for anything. God made you that way for a reason.

~Anthony Edwards

I didn't start jogging or running until I was 37 years old. It was something that really helped me change my life.

~Anthony Edwards

I love being a part of something that is grassroots, and you can see the actual changes, the effect of what people do.

~Anthony Edwards

To be a good actor you really have to want to act first.

~Anthony Edwards

I was spoiled by theater, where there is no editor.

~Anthony Edwards

It's difficult to keep that perspective, I think, as a parent: to know your boundaries as to what's good parenting or just projecting your own expectations on your kids. That's the hardest.

~Anthony Edwards

You know, you never say never because before I did 'ER,' I always said 'I'll never do a TV series,' so that's what I said.

~Anthony Edwards

To think one film makes a career is ridiculous. It's important to keep perspective and do things other than for money.

~Anthony Edwards

Knock wood, but I started acting professionally when I was 16, and I've always been able to support myself since then.

~Anthony Edwards

I had this thing about hanging out in dark theaters. My family thought I grew out of a rock.

~Anthony Edwards

'ER' was so huge that whatever I did coming back to television, I'd have to feel as strongly about.

~Anthony Edwards

So I was hugely thrilled that my first scene ever on camera was with Hal Holbrook.

~Anthony Edwards

You've got to make the most of where you are. Then, when you're somewhere else, you've got to have the ability to fulfill that.
