Actions speak louder than words; let your words teach and your actions speak.

~Anthony of Padua

The life of the body is the soul; the life of the soul is God.

~Anthony of Padua

Charity is the soul of faith, makes it alive; without love, faith dies.

~Anthony of Padua

The spirit of humility is sweeter than honey, and those who nourish themselves with this honey produce sweet fruit.

~Anthony of Padua

He prays best who does not know that he is praying.

~Anthony of Padua

Christians must lean on the Cross of Christ just as travelers lean on a staff when they begin a long journey.

~Anthony of Padua

Attribute to God every good that you have received. If you take credit for something that does not belong to you, you will be guilty of theft.

~Anthony of Padua

We are formed by environment and grace, by politics and prayer, by church and conscience. All God's creatures conspire to teach us as well. We stumble. We stutter. We rise. We are lifted.

~Anthony of Padua

Earthly riches are like the reed. Its roots are sunk in the swamp, and its exterior is fair to behold; but inside it is hollow. If a man leans on such a reed, it will snap off and pierce his soul.

~Anthony of Padua

Anyone, then, who desires to live chastely in Christ Jesus, must flee not only the mouse of lust, but even from its very scent.

~Anthony of Padua

Regret not that which is past; and trust not to thine own righteousness.

~Anthony of Padua

O name of Mary! Joy in the heart, honey in the mouth, melody to the ear of Her devout clients!

~Anthony of Padua

The prayer of the monk is not perfect until he no longer recognizes himself or the fact that he is praying.

~Anthony of Padua

Damned money! Alas! How many religious did it blind! How many cloistered religious did it deceive! Money is the 'droppings of birds' that blinded the eyes of Tobit.

~Anthony of Padua

The Glorious Virgin did not have a stain in her birth because she was sanctified in her mother's womb and safeguarded there by angels.
