Brother*

A time is coming when men will go mad, and when they see someone who is not mad, they will attack him, saying, "You are mad; you are not like us."

~Anthony the Great

To say that God turns away from the sinful is like saying that the sun hides from the blind.

~Anthony the Great

When you lie down on your bed to sleep, remember with thanksgiving the blessings and the providence of God.

~Anthony the Great

I saw the snares that the enemy spreads out over the world and I said groaning, "What can get through from such snares?" Then I heard a voice saying to me, "Humility.

~Anthony the Great

The person who abides in solitude and quiet is delivered from fighting three battles: hearing, speech, and sight. Then there remains one battle to fight-the battle of the heart.

~Anthony the Great

Our life and our death is with our neighbor. If we gain our brother, we have gained God, but if we scandalize our brother, we have sinned against Christ.

~Anthony the Great

Expect temptation to your last breath.

~Anthony the Great

This is the great work of a man: always to take the blame for his own sins before God, and to expect temptation to his last breath.

~Anthony the Great

One should not say that it is impossible to reach a virtuous life; but one should say that it is not easy. Nor do those who have reached it find it easy to maintain.

~Anthony the Great

Intelligent men have no need to listen to much talk, but should attend only to that which is profitable and guided by God's will.
