It's a dumb question, because I don't look at things as a black director, just as a director, so ask me as a director first and we can segue into the colour thing later.

~Antoine Fuqua

Some men don't gel when it comes to work - you have different work ethics, different opinions, different points of views, different methods of filmmaking - and we didn't gel.

~Antoine Fuqua

Being a kid growing up with Kurosawa films and watching Sergio Leone movies just made me love what it could do to you, and how it could influence you - make you dream.

~Antoine Fuqua

Cinema Paradiso, because it reminds me of why I make movies, the magic of movies, the romance of movies.

~Antoine Fuqua

So it's hard to be an artist and be true to the reality of the world you want to create and also make it entertaining and successful financially.

~Antoine Fuqua

Bruce Willis. Pain in my ass, no problem about that. We just didn't get along. We got along off camera, but shooting we just didn't get along.

~Antoine Fuqua

I like the platform to show your art and everything that goes along with that. To show your voice and hopefully find films that are more politically driven, films that maybe inspire.

~Antoine Fuqua

I just think you can't shut your life off to just, you know, one thing. You gotta be open-minded. Explore things. Feed your artist.

~Antoine Fuqua

It's a hard line to walk, man. Cause you know you want to make this movie, you want to make it dark and real, you want to show all this stuff but unfortunately you can't always do that.

~Antoine Fuqua

You'll see a consistent, like the tea, the tea bags you saw there-you'll see a consistent-did you see the cafeteria? I mean the diner?

~Antoine Fuqua

What I learned is, don't forget who you are, because that's what's going to make you a filmmaker.

~Antoine Fuqua

I like the opportunity to make films.

~Antoine Fuqua

I like making movies.

~Antoine Fuqua

I've become friends with Michael Mann and Oliver Stone; I've seen those guys work and that was great to see.

~Antoine Fuqua

I believe in God, absolutely.

~Antoine Fuqua

I started studying mythology, just on my own. Joseph Campbell, mysticism.

~Antoine Fuqua

In movies you get to do that. Sometimes with the vigilante justice movie he has to also tangle with police, which are traditional or security people. Is there going to be any of that in this?

~Antoine Fuqua

One hundred percent, I mean, many of the Sergio Leone movies were with Clint Eastwood, and that's what it is.

~Antoine Fuqua

I'm a product of older filmmakers I guess, the past where you get to make movies and scenes are what they are.

~Antoine Fuqua

If I'm going to see my mom, I'm going to church!

~Antoine Fuqua

If you see someone lying out knives and forks consistently, but then one day those knives and forks become weapons you're not sure if he does that as a warrior, that's just his thing.

~Antoine Fuqua

We're very good friends, we have a very honest relationship. He keeps me honest, I keep him honest. He's an incredible actor and when you have an actor like Denzel action becomes drama.

~Antoine Fuqua

I became a director just for the love of movies, because of the power of cinema.

~Antoine Fuqua

I'd seen too many shrines in South Central and thought it was worth asking where the first bullet came from that started all this violence.
