I would say my mind is always working - no matter where I am I continue to see opportunities all around me. My only sorrow is that I can't possibly explore them all!

~Arlene Dickinson

You can't base your life's decisions on potential future regrets.

~Arlene Dickinson

The true measure of success isn't winning, it's whether you won & could actually deliver.

~Arlene Dickinson

I believe its a lifestyle choice and like any lifestyle choice it will be what you make of it and how fully you live and enjoy it.

~Arlene Dickinson

I want to own my own business because then I can be in control of everything.

~Arlene Dickinson

People give up control because they don't want to make mistakes.

~Arlene Dickinson

My dad used to call me "yeah but" because no matter what the answer was I always wanted to explore why things were what they were and how they might be different.

~Arlene Dickinson

Sometimes being in control of everything comes with a lot of challenges.

~Arlene Dickinson

I've got a lot of businesses that I've invested in and I am really enjoying it.

~Arlene Dickinson

You need more than an idea to run a business

~Arlene Dickinson

I have been truly blessed with the ability to compartmentalize the many competing agendas in my mind. Because of this I can shut it off and enjoy the moment.

~Arlene Dickinson

My dream was to fall in love and be a mom. I never thought too much past those two things.
