I've started collecting taxidermy: I've got a red squirrel, called Steve. I made sure he came with certificates so we know he wasn't just killed for stuffing.

~Arthur Darvill

Monday is great if I can spend it in bed. I'm a man of simple pleasures, really.

~Arthur Darvill

I wouldn't steal anything because stealing is wrong. If I had to, I'd steal a caged bird and set it free.

~Arthur Darvill

I think 'Breaking Bad' is brilliant. Good drama in the U.S. is also so funny and blurs the line between light and dark.

~Arthur Darvill

I get to go to work and FaceTime my friends and family and go, "Hey, I'm just showing you around my spaceship!" It's great to be able to do that. I'm having a ball!

~Arthur Darvill

I'd rather do my own performance than copy someone else's.

~Arthur Darvill

You can only lead if the people that you're leading want to be led.

~Arthur Darvill

I use music as therapy. Whenever I'm feeling angry or needing some 'me' time, which is quite regularly, I'll go and bang a piano or flesh out something on a guitar.

~Arthur Darvill

It's really exciting to be a part of something new that's pushing boundaries.

~Arthur Darvill

'Broadchurch' is very different, but it's equally as good as 'The Killing' - if not better.

~Arthur Darvill

When I was young, my mum was part of a brilliant puppet theatre that toured all over the world.

~Arthur Darvill

'The Globe' is one of the most terrifying theatres in London. It's that mob element - everyone packed in and staring up at you.

~Arthur Darvill

I'm endlessly putting myself on tapes for things over in America! I'm always sitting at home, learning lines, sending stuff to America.

~Arthur Darvill

I didn't really have any aspirations to do TV when I first decided to be an actor.

~Arthur Darvill

I did 'Little Dorrit' a few years ago; I really love doing period dramas. It's stuff like that I really enjoy watching.

~Arthur Darvill

My dad bought me a guitar when I was very young, and I never looked back.
