Pride, like laudanum and other poisonous medicines, is beneficial in small, though injurious in large, quantities. No man who is not pleased with himself, even in a personal sense, can please others.

~Arthur Frederick Saunders

Good-humor is the clear blue sky of the soul.

~Arthur Frederick Saunders

Brain cells create ideas. Stress kills brain cells. Stress is not a good idea

~Arthur Frederick Saunders

Nonsense is to sense, as shade to light; it heightens effect.

~Arthur Frederick Saunders

My heart to you is given: Oh, do give yours to me; We'll lock them up together, And throw away the key.

~Arthur Frederick Saunders

The Sabbath-day is the savings-bank of humanity.

~Arthur Frederick Saunders

As a human being, possessing education, talent, and recourses obligates you to help others less fortunate.

~Arthur Frederick Saunders

The best practitioners give to their patients the least medicine.

~Arthur Frederick Saunders

Mammon is the largest slave-holder in the world.

~Arthur Frederick Saunders

Dean Swift proposed to tax beauty, and to leave every lady to rate her own charms; he said the tax would be cheerfully paid and very productive.

~Arthur Frederick Saunders

Kind words are benedictions. They are not only instruments of power, but of benevolence and courtesy; blessings both to the speaker and hearer of them.

~Arthur Frederick Saunders

True beauty is in the mind; and the expression of the features depends more upon the moral nature than most persons are accustomed to think.

~Arthur Frederick Saunders

Love, indeed, lends a precious seeing to the eye, and hearing to the ear: all sights and sounds are glorified by the light of its presence.
