At its best, travel should challenge our preconceptions and most cherished views, cause us to rethink our assumptions, shake us a bit, make us broader minded and more understanding.

~Arthur Frommer

Nicaragua is becoming the least expensive Caribbean destination.

~Arthur Frommer

Tourism does not go to a city that has lost its soul.

~Arthur Frommer

Luckily you cannot get to the Golden Triangle in a bus. You can only access it on your own two feet!

~Arthur Frommer

Dubai, I think is a big bore - a city deliberately built to appeal to tourism, and only built for that purpose, and not possessing a valid culture or history of its own.

~Arthur Frommer

Once abroad, I eat one meal a day picnic-style: I've learned that no mature stomach can tolerate an endless routine of rich restaurant meals.

~Arthur Frommer

I've always found that the best travelers are the very same people who are intensely interested in the history and culture of their own home city.

~Arthur Frommer

In general, my advice is to seek out people and new ideas when you travel.

~Arthur Frommer

What a treasure of awesome sights and attractions our country has.

~Arthur Frommer

I always feel depressed when I go into a country under dictatorial rule.

~Arthur Frommer

If I tell a hotel I'm a travel writer, I can't get out of there without spending a few hours looking at every single room!

~Arthur Frommer

I find, on my own travels, that the most depressing form of culture shock is experienced when you go into a country that is under the thumb of a dictator.

~Arthur Frommer

I regard Paris as a feast for the eyes, the senses and brain. It is a phenomenal city.
