A happy marriage is a new beginning of life, a new starting point for happiness and usefulness.

~Arthur Penrhyn Stanley

The true call of a Christian is not to do extraordinary things, but to do ordinary things in an extraordinary way.

~Arthur Penrhyn Stanley

The cross of Christ is the pledge to us that the deepest suffering may be the condition of the highest blessing; the sign, not of God's displeasure, but of His widest and most compassionate face.

~Arthur Penrhyn Stanley

We must never throw away a bushel of truth because it happens to contain a few grains of chaff.

~Arthur Penrhyn Stanley

I think in reality the Japanese have to make changes in monetary policy, otherwise we're still going to be dealing with some upward pressure on the yen against the dollar.

~Arthur Penrhyn Stanley

Doubtless there are times when controversy becomes a necessary evil. But let us remember that it is an evil.

~Arthur Penrhyn Stanley

In the long term, there are many factors that will help the luxury market, the creation of new wealth and the Asian tourist boom

~Arthur Penrhyn Stanley

I have looked on scenery as a strange and on scenery more grand, but on scenery at once so strange and so grand I have never looked and probably never shall again.

~Arthur Penrhyn Stanley

The greatness of God is the true rebuke to the littleness of men. The greatness of Christ is the true rebuke to the littleness of Christians.

~Arthur Penrhyn Stanley

I doubt if hard work, steadily and regularly carried on, ever yet hurt anybody.

~Arthur Penrhyn Stanley

Most people would succeed above themselves.

~Arthur Penrhyn Stanley

Posterity preserves only what will pack into small compass. Jewels are handed down from age to age; less portable valuables disappear.

~Arthur Penrhyn Stanley

It is through the multitudinous mass of living human hearts, of human acts and words of love and truth, that the Christ of the first century has become the Christ of the nineteenth.

~Arthur Penrhyn Stanley

Each one of us is bound to make the little circle in which he or she lives better and happier. Bound to see that out of that small circle the widest good may flow.
