Instead of a river, God often gives us a brook, which may be running today and dried up tomorrow. Why? To teach us not to rest in our blessings, but in the blesser Himself.

~Arthur W. Pink

Prayer is not so much an act as it is an attitude - an attitude of dependency, dependency upon God.

~Arthur W. Pink

It is not the absence of sin but the grieving over it which distinguishes the child of God from empty professors.

~Arthur W. Pink

The Bible is no lazy man's book! Much of its treasure, like the valuable minerals stored in the bowels of the earth, only yield up themselves to the diligent seeker.

~Arthur W. Pink

True liberty is not the power to live as we please, but to live as we ought.

~Arthur W. Pink

Grace can neither be bought, earned, or won by the creature. If it could be, it would cease to be grace.

~Arthur W. Pink

The great mistake made by most of the Lord's people is in hoping to discover in themselves that which is to be found in Christ alone.

~Arthur W. Pink

Growing in grace is a deepening realization of our nothingness; it is a heartfelt recognition that we are not worthy of the least of God's mercies.

~Arthur W. Pink

Unbelief is infectious! The unbelief of one strengthens the unbelief of another, just as the faith of one strengthens the faith of another.

~Arthur W. Pink

Happy the soul that has been awed by a view of God's majesty

~Arthur W. Pink

The gospel is not an announcement that God has relaxed his justice or lowered the standard of His holiness.

~Arthur W. Pink

The measure of our love for others can largely be determined by the frequency and earnestness of our prayers for them.

~Arthur W. Pink

How blessed to know that when the world hates us, God loves us!

~Arthur W. Pink

We must not forget that the issues of Eternity are settled in Time.

~Arthur W. Pink

An honest heart loves the Truth.

~Arthur W. Pink

An honest heart seeks to please God in all things and offend Him in none.

~Arthur W. Pink

Nothing is too great and nothing is too small to commit into the hands of the Lord.

~Arthur W. Pink

Most Christians expect little from God, ask little, and therefore receive little and are content with little.

~Arthur W. Pink

An ineffably holy God, who has the utmost abhorrence of sin, was never invented by any of Adam's descendents.

~Arthur W. Pink

Taking up my cross means a life voluntarily surrendered to God.

~Arthur W. Pink

Love is the queen of all the Christian graces.

~Arthur W. Pink

When we complain about the weather, we are, in reality, murmuring against God.

~Arthur W. Pink

Almost all doctrinal error is really truth perverted. Truth wrongly divided. Truth disproportionately held and taught.

~Arthur W. Pink

Prayer is the way and means God has appointed for the communication of the blessings of His goodness to His people.

~Arthur W. Pink

A 'god' whose will is resisted, designs frustrated, and purpose checkmated, possesses no title to Deity.

~Arthur W. Pink

To the one who delights in the sovereignty of God the clouds not only have a 'silver lining' but they are silver all through, the darkness only serving to offset the light!

~Arthur W. Pink

For a Christian to defy adversities is to "despise" chastisement. Instead of hardening himself to endure stoically, there should be a melting of the heart.

~Arthur W. Pink

Faithful people have always been in a marked minority.

~Arthur W. Pink

Whatever I cannot do for God's glory must be avoided.

~Arthur W. Pink

Real prayer is communion with God

~Arthur W. Pink

Contentment... is the soul's enjoyment of that peace that passes all understanding.

~Arthur W. Pink

In the person of Christ God beholds a holiness which abides His closest scrutiny, yea, which rejoices and satisfies His heart; and whatever Christ is before God, He is for His people.

~Arthur W. Pink

Where sin had brought men, love brought the Saviour.

~Arthur W. Pink

After grief for sin there should be joy for forgiveness.

~Arthur W. Pink

Chastisement is designed for our good, to promote our highest interests. Look beyond the rod to the All-wise hand that wields it!

~Arthur W. Pink

No verse of Scripture yields its meaning to lazy people.

~Arthur W. Pink

God cannot change for the better, for He is already perfect; and being perfect, He cannot change for the worse.

~Arthur W. Pink

The Christian life is a life that consists of following Jesus.

~Arthur W. Pink

If I have never mourned over my waywardness, then I have no solid ground for rejoicing.

~Arthur W. Pink

The truth of God may well be likened to a narrow path skirted on either side by a dangerous and destructive precipice: in other words, it lies between two gulfs of error.

~Arthur W. Pink

if the will is their servant then it is not sovereign, and if the will is not sovereign, we certainly cannot predicate 'freedom' of it.

~Arthur W. Pink

A natural faith is sufficient for trusting a human object; but a supernatural faith is required to trust savingly in a Divine object.

~Arthur W. Pink

Prayer is not designed for the furnishing of God with the knowledge of what we need, but it is designed as a confession to him of our sense of need.

~Arthur W. Pink

Daily living by faith on Christ is what makes the difference between the sickly and the healthy Christian, between the defeated and the victorious saint.

~Arthur W. Pink

Sin is more than an act or a series of acts; it is a man's make-up.

~Arthur W. Pink

Christ is the Divine answer to the Devil's overthrow of our first parents.
