Wearing a Democratic label no longer matches what I know about my country and its possibilities.

~Artur Davis

This time, instead of moving oceans and healing planets, let's get our bills in order and pay down the debt so we control our own future.

~Artur Davis

You talk about the values that you have whether they're in favor or not in favor. That's how you lead. The reality is, we're losing more and more elections.

~Artur Davis

I think the most overused words in our vocabulary in the South are black and white.

~Artur Davis

Sometimes running for Congress is a four-year strategy in terms of getting out there and building a network.

~Artur Davis

The repeal of racist language in the Constitution of Alabama was and still is a necessary step in the state's ability to progress.

~Artur Davis

John F. Kennedy asked us what we could do for America. This Democratic Party asks what can government give you. Don't worry about paying the bill, it's on your kids and grandkids.

~Artur Davis

Ask yourself if these Democrats still speak for you. When they say we have a duty to grow government even when we can't afford it, does it sound like compassion to you - or recklessness?

~Artur Davis

I know 100 percent what it's like to have people tell you that you can't hold an office because of your color, and to have people vote based on that belief.

~Artur Davis

Now, America is a land of second chances, and I gather you have room for the estimated 6 million of us who know we got it wrong in 2008 and who want to fix it.

~Artur Davis

The Democrats' ads convince me that Governor Romney can't sing, but his record convinces me he knows how to lead, and I think you know which skill we need more.

~Artur Davis

We don't need flowery words about inequality to tell us that, and we don't need a party that has led while poverty and hunger rose to record levels to give us lectures about suffering.

~Artur Davis

Mitt Romney, happens to have the exact skill set that the next president's going to require.
