It seems like the millennial generation is a little bit of a cultural punching bag.

~Audie Cornish

[People] will be reminded of the integrity of our election systems and the confidence that they deserve to have.

~Audie Cornish

Reports by Politico, Bloomberg and other news outlets have raised inconsistencies in Melania Trump's immigration story.

~Audie Cornish

And I'm hoping that between now and two years from now and four years from now and future election cycles, people have gotten past the hype and the hysteria of these most recent allegations.

~Audie Cornish

Donald Trump has been rejecting the idea of trade agreements like NAFTA, like the Trans-Pacific Partnership.

~Audie Cornish

There's evidence that one of the Paris attackers may have entered Europe posing as a refugee.

~Audie Cornish

[people] very fact that it's decentralized makes it literally impossible to try to hack or rig the results.

~Audie Cornish

Anybody from the public can come in and observe ballots being processed and those votes being counted in elections officials' offices in any county in any state in the nation.

~Audie Cornish

When anybody and everybody registers to vote, they do so under the penalty of perjury.

~Audie Cornish

When anybody and everybody registers to vote, they do so under the penalty of perjury. They're signing a contract that they are 18 years of age or older and they're citizens of the United States.

~Audie Cornish

The journey is the destination. That's what you have to tell people.

~Audie Cornish

If you see something, say something. This is more than a slogan. If you see someone turning toward violence, say something. Say something to law enforcement or to one of you in your community.

~Audie Cornish

Donald Trump's presidential campaign has been getting a lot of questions about his wife .

~Audie Cornish

So when a music artist puts an album out that can only be streamed, not downloaded, what happens? In Kanye West's case, apparently it gets pirated a lot.

~Audie Cornish

New Year's Day probably is not going to work. And one of the main reasons it's not going to work is that the Rose Bowl is on New Year's Day, and it's not moving.

~Audie Cornish

Donald Trump singled out three particular states where he claimed there was, quote, "serious voter fraud" - Virginia, New Hampshire and California. Trump lost all three of those states.

~Audie Cornish

Donald Trump and his team have not provided any evidence of widespread fraud in this year's election.

~Audie Cornish

[Donald Trump's] allegations are completely unfounded.

~Audie Cornish

I think it's a big disservice to our country and to our democracy to continue to raise these doubts.

~Audie Cornish

If anything, a message back to [Donald] Trump is, if you have proof, if you have evidence, please bring it forward. Procedures are in place to investigate any real voter fraud.

~Audie Cornish

As the evidence has shown, the cases of voter fraud across the country are statistically minimal if you go back decades.

~Audie Cornish

While the White House has condemned anti-Muslim rhetoric as divisive, the administration is also worried such talk will hurt antiterrorism efforts.

~Audie Cornish

People going overseas and becoming radicalized, coming back maybe people have an increased interest in weapons.

~Audie Cornish

It seemed Abe Vigoda's career was done until he was pronounced dead in print.

~Audie Cornish

A People Magazine article in 1982 referred to him as the late Abe Vigoda. The very-much-alive Vigoda placed an ad in Variety with him in a coffin holding a copy of People Magazine.

~Audie Cornish

The Internet kept the joke going. Abevigoda.com was devoted to updating the actor's status, as was @AbeVigodaUpdate, a Twitter account.
