Most of my comedy is accidental, I would say. If I don't know what the joke is, I'm going to play it better than if I do.

~Aya Cash

I've seen some of my favorite actors give bad performances, and I have to tell myself that failure is a part of success.

~Aya Cash

You know what, maybe I just want a different kind of life. Maybe I want to open an antique store and coffee shop, and have a different kind of life.

~Aya Cash

What you learn in any acting class is how to make a fool of yourself and enjoy things and get out of your head.

~Aya Cash

In school I really loved Shakespeare, and I participated in a country-wide Shakespeare competition.

~Aya Cash

You have to be kinder to yourself, because it's a part of being good.

~Aya Cash

I don't need to be crazy rich and crazy famous. I would just like to keep going.

~Aya Cash

I feel crushingly embarrassed when I do bad work, so being rejected after doing bad work is actually harder than being rejected after doing good work.

~Aya Cash

The worst feeling in the world is giving a bad audition.

~Aya Cash

I think that it's a myth that there's one job that makes your whole career, unless you're winning an Oscar. But even that doesn't work for some people.

~Aya Cash

No one is trying to be bad for the sake of being bad - there's always a reason behind it.

~Aya Cash

You have to find something you relate to in every character.

~Aya Cash

I really don't have a specific idea of where I want my career to go, I just have an idea of wanting to continue to work and work on things that I like and think are good.

~Aya Cash

You never know what's going to happen, so you just continue with your head down and never expect things to start being handed to you.

~Aya Cash

The idea of a journeyman actor, people sort of say negatively - "Someone who never made it for real" - [but] I think a journeyman actor is the complete goal.

~Aya Cash

We're all eaters. That's our bond. Let's be real.

~Aya Cash

As you get older and you progress in your career, you start to want to have more control over things and you have ideas.

~Aya Cash

I've always just shown up to set and said the lines, [but] I want to help develop scripts and help cast and help bring a visual tone to something.

~Aya Cash

I don't know if I'll ever direct, but producing is dipping my toe into my behind-the-scenes world.

~Aya Cash

Offers come up, but I'm still fighting for jobs and auditioning and being rejected.

~Aya Cash

We live in a time where improv is king and people love improv, and I think there's a time and a place for that and people who are really good at structuring improv.

~Aya Cash

The reason actors are assholes is because they don't eat.

~Aya Cash

Even in success, you're going to be constantly rejected.

~Aya Cash

Even though I'm on a show that I love with people that I love - I have basically the dream job - that doesn't mean I'm not getting rejected on a daily basis.

~Aya Cash

I work constantly to be better at being rejected.

~Aya Cash

I always knew that I'd probably do something in the arts.

~Aya Cash

I wanted to be a writer for a while. I was an excellent child writer. I won multiple poetry contests. I was published at age three - I think that was more about novelty than my immense talent.

~Aya Cash

Acting was something I wanted to work at and put the time into.

~Aya Cash

If I had a child and she was a girl, I'd hope she'd do something different from me.

~Aya Cash

There's innate competition, I think, between mothers and daughters - mine no more so than anyone else.

~Aya Cash

I think it's very hard to go into the same business as your family when you're an artist.

~Aya Cash

The thing I'd miss most is the feeling when acting is going well, when you start a play and you end the night and you look back and go, "What just happened?"

~Aya Cash
