The vast majority of women musicians function under singular names like 'Cher' 'Madonna'. They have to get married almost immediately to preserve their honour.

~Ayshay

There are very few pop people I'm interested in working with.

I feel like there is an emphasis against teaching geography in American schools. Americans don't say, "I'm going to Germany." They say, "I'm going to Europe."

~Ayshay

I was one of five out of 100 people who passed the test, which just proved to me how little Americans are taught geography.

I had a story-telling mother; she's written novels and short stories. So I feel like maybe I'm staying alive by telling tales.

~Ayshay

My music doesn't exist in a vacuum; there's a script and there's an actor and it's about to come together.

~Ayshay

I still think you people need to be curious [in order to absorb the culture]. You need to search Uzbekistani pop music.

~Ayshay

I'm sure that a lot of my friends - even though they're curious about the music of nations that are not on their radar - still don't know what Kuwaiti music sounds like.

~Ayshay

I feel like I got my first real taste of Caribbean and Cuban culture while I was there. I have quite a sizeable Cuban vinyl collection from Miami thrift stores.
