~Babe Ruth

I'd play for half my salary if I could hit in this dump (Wrigley Field) all the time.

~Babe Ruth

Yesterday's home runs don't win today's games.

~Babe Ruth

I've never heard a crowd boo a homer, but I've heard plenty of boos after a strikeout.

~Babe Ruth

Who is richer? The man who is seen, but cannot see? Or the man who is not being seen, but can see?

~Babe Ruth

What the hell has (Herbert) Hoover got to do with it? Anyway, I had a better year than he did.

~Babe Ruth

The way a team plays as a whole determines its success.

~Babe Ruth

It's hard to beat a person that never gives up.

~Babe Ruth

Life is a game like any other; we just don't take it as seriously.

~Babe Ruth

What do I think about when I strike out? I think about hitting home runs.

~Babe Ruth

(Ty) Cobb is a prick. But he sure can hit. God Almighty, that man can hit.

~Babe Ruth
