If kids come to us from strong, healthy functioning families, it makes our job easier. If they do not come to us from strong, healthy, functioning families, it makes our job more important.

~Barbara Coloroso

There's no problem so great it can't be solved. If it can't be solved, it's not a problem, it's reality.

~Barbara Coloroso

The beauty of empowering others is that your own power is not diminished in the process.

~Barbara Coloroso

Our children are counting on us to provide two things: consistency and structure. Children need parents who say what they mean, mean what they say, and do what they say they are going to do.

~Barbara Coloroso

Because they are children and for no other reason they have dignity and worth simply because they are.

~Barbara Coloroso

There is no problem so great it cannot be solved.

~Barbara Coloroso

There is something profoundly satisfying about sharing a meal. Eating together, breaking bread together, is one of the oldest and most fundamentally unifying of human experiences.

~Barbara Coloroso

If you can't solve it, it's not a problem - it's reality.

~Barbara Coloroso

Our children need to be able to see us take a stand for a value and against injustices, be those values and injustices in the family room, the boardroom, the classroom, or on the city streets.

~Barbara Coloroso

If you cannot solve it, it is not a problem - it is reality.

~Barbara Coloroso

The best time to start giving your children money is when they will no longer eat it. Basically, when they don't put it in their mouths, they can start putting it in their bank.
