The greatest gift God has given me is the capacity of love for people. I have so many faults, but caring about people is not one of them.

~Barbara Mandrell

That is the exciting thing: I don't know what God has given me for tomorrow.

~Barbara Mandrell

If we don't help each other, who will?

~Barbara Mandrell

That's what I loved about show business, no two days were alike. It's an exciting life.

~Barbara Mandrell

Married, but not to each other.

~Barbara Mandrell

I was country when country wasn't cool.

~Barbara Mandrell

And they just saw me on that and - from the time I was 11 until I was 12, I guess. And then when I had just turned 13, they asked me if I wanted to tour with Johnny Cash back East.

~Barbara Mandrell

It's an exciting life. I don't know where God is leading us. I just know that He opens doors and He closes the doors, and it is always the best for us.

~Barbara Mandrell

I just like doing silly girly things. If I wrap a gift, I like to use special ribbon and hot glue, silk flowers and things.

~Barbara Mandrell

I am loving being Momma. I really, really am.

~Barbara Mandrell

When I retired from my music November 1997, it had been 37 years.

~Barbara Mandrell

I think it was 37 years that I did music.
